Peddling HATE In America: EGYPT'S NASSER

The Lunatic Fringe Hangs Ravings on the Cairo Line

By DAVID BURK

(First article of a series) -

NEARLY 90 dynamite blasts have echoed around the country in the last two years, aimed mainly at Jews, Negroes and sincere Christian citizens who have publicly backed these groups. FBI and internal security agents had long been on the bombers' trail, but when a $100,000 gash was torn in the Jewish Temple at Atlanta, Ga., last October, a grim and startling fact leaked out for the first time.

Practically every operation fitted into a national pattern which, authorities believe, was etched by a loose-linked network of American neo-fascist groups peppered around the country.

This hate corps, smashed in the 40s when it openly supported Hitler while other Americans fought him on the battlefields, today has emerged as a fifth column acting in behalf of President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the so-called United Arab Republic and his dreams of empire.

FASCISTS DEMAND AN AMERICAN HITLER

Since mid-October, in New York and other states, I have been seeking out the men and the groups tailored into the network of hate and violence, listening to their boasts and threats and admissions, reading their printed ravings, checking on their connections. I have compared my findings with the officials whose job it is to fit the confused jigsaw puzzle together.

In the process, aspects of this conspiracy that at first seemed wildly inconsistent or bordering on fantasy gradually fell into line and made sense.

The fascists, many of whom still strut at closed gatherings in facsimiles of the Nazi Brown-shirt uniform, spew out hysterical propaganda against America's government and institutions and openly urge their replacement with a Hitler (or Khrushchev) style corporate state.

What at first appears to be only misplaced or demented idealism turns out on closer examination to be surreptitious big business. In some cases, the annual turnover runs well into six figures.

The men behind this hate racket revere Adolf Hitler. One of them, a ruggedly handsome, fuhrer-minded Virginian named George Lincoln Rockwell, whose name has been linked with the men on trial for the Atlanta bombing, expressed the general idea for all his fellows when he told me:

"Adolf Hitler was a gift from an inscrutable Providence. He was a world savior in his time."

But the worship of dead and departed heroes is of dwindling popular appeal. So, while not toppling the late, over-ambitious house painter from his pedestal, the racists cast around for a new and living counterpart.

The man they chose, ironically enough, was Nasser—and business has been brisk ever since. Cairo, since Nasser's hop, skip and jump into power in 1952, has been a trail blazer in the sphere of inflammatory propaganda, as the heads of other Arab states repeatedly complain.

The constant exchange of gimmicks, vituperation and Moscow-style distortions—as well, it is believed, as sackful of shekels—suggests that both Cairo and America's lunatic fringe welcome an occasional shot in the arm.

The race groups here, coordinated rather than organized and with a total following throughout the country that officials estimate at not more than a few thousand, are zealously following Nasser's line.

But what, you may ask, could Nasser possibly want with a fifth column in the United States? The answer, as officials at the Department of Justice explained it to me, is transparently simple.

ARABS REGARD U. S. AS 'SECOND FRONT'

The Nasser-dominated segment of the Arab world, fed on an information diet prescribed by our native racists, frankly regards not only American Jewry but the U. S. Administration, too, as the fountainhead of Israel's moral and financial help. Looked at in this light, Nasser must knock out Israel's backers in the U. S. before he can keep his pledge to his followers to knock out Israel itself. The U. S. thus becomes a legitimate "second front."

Nasser himself, back in the early 50s when he still was the unassuming Col. Nasser, Egyptian prime minister under fatherly Gen. Mohammed Naguib, whom he later liquidated as subtly as any trained Kremlinite, once told me bitterly in Cairo.

"America is in the hands of the Zionists. The Jews control the press and government. The Arab voice is never heard. How can we fight back?"

For at least four years now he has been fighting back, using Egyptian military intelligence officers and men who can hide behind diplomatic immunity as the contact men, and a group of individuals and periodicals as his mouthpieces. The periodicals, all neatly arranged in alphabetical order on the Attorney General's List of Subversive Publications, rarely go to press without some item of Nasser's propaganda, and their own outpourings turn up in Arab press and broadcasts.

HOPE TO BREED HATRED AT JEWS

The basic hope is that, by breeding hatred and suspicion of the Jews, outraged public opinion might force Congress to stop official support for Israel. With a little additional shove, Congress might even be persuaded to legislate against support for Israel from Jewish organizations.

Since Nasser has such leading experts on his staff as Kurt von Reimer, who learned his racism under the able Dr. Goebbels, the American pure-blood operators have had little difficulty in surmounting the paradox that Egypt is an African country whose people have combined Negro and Semitic blood.

The master-race philosophy, in its amended form, has dropped the label "anti-Semite" like a hot coal so that, as one of the American fuhrers put it, "common ground and common cause" with the Arabs could be found. In its place was installed the blunter "anti-Jew."

The anti-Negro gambit, however, had to stay because the racists, though mainly headquartered north of the Mason-Dixon line, make considerable capital by operating a king-size handwagon for Southern hot-heads.

Nasser's boys, moreover, do not regard their American allies as odd bedfellows. Totalitarianism is a process that traditionally creates unlikely relationships and Nasser's far-flung activities—zig-zagging between Communist Russia and the West—indicate that he never has much minded with whom he jumped into bed.

In a blustery campaign which currently is losing some of its original impetus, Nasser has been blasting the native "Communists" of Egypt and his northern province of Syria, as well as those of Iraq. The word Communists has to go between quotation marks because the definition, so far, is a Nasser exclusive. There is no guarantee but Nasser's own that the "hundreds" of persons he has had thrown into clink are the Communists in fact—and the record offers no evidence that Nasser's guarantees are of any value.

Deceit and the false-front are gimmicks as popular in Cairo as they are in Moscow. The Egyptian dictator's real problem is the renewed rivalry from his opposite number in Iraq, Gen. Abdul Karim el-Kassem. Iraqi rivalry has worried Nasser before. Every time he feels he is making headway with his plan to create an Arab empire, Iraq gets in the way. Last time, the competitor was pro-Western Premier Nuri Said, the only statesman worthy of the title in the Mideast. Sparked by Nasser's agents, el-Kassem and some army cohorts bumped off Said and his friends last July in a bloody uprising.

ATLANTA BOMBING SPOTLIGHTED PLOT

But Moscow was backing both Nasser and el-Kassem, and still is. And it evidently suits Khrushchev to use the Iraqi in an effort to reduce the swelling of the Egyptian's head. So the real issue today is not one of Nasser vs. the Reds (latest reports from Iraq say Kassem also is swinging against the Communists) but of an internal Arab fight for power. Both sides feel that Western support, especially financial, might help. And what better way of suckering the West than to put on a great Red roundup rodeo, which also provides an opportunity of locking up anyone whose loyalty to the dictatorship is doubtful?

The Atlanta Temple bombing, however, triggered a series of shocks. First, it was thoroughly condemned by every respectable and responsible citizen, from President Eisenhower on down. Second, thanks to a story carried exclusively in THE NEWS, the link between the Arabs and the hate-mongers held responsible for the blast suddenly emerged. Third, it was revealed that the FBI, the nation's top counter-espionage outfit, had been ordered into action instead, as in previous bombings, of investigations being left to the city or state police.

For various reasons, some obvious, Cairo cannot afford to be caught out. The State Department would be pretty mad, of course, but it would be much worse if word leaked out in Egypt that Nasser's agents were playing footsie with setups that are not merely anti-Jewish but also anti-Negro.

At the New York information office maintained by the Arab League, but largely dominated by Nasser, at the UAR delegation to the United Nations and at the UAR embassy in Washington, a firm front was maintained against "these undesirable elements." The order had gone out: "Deny, deny, deny."

The hatemongers I sought out have been less discreet. The connection with an established regime is too good for their egos to be hidden. Men like James H. Madole, the basilisk-eyed, stiff-jointed leader of Manhattan's National Renaissance Party, boasted of "meeting regularly with the Arabs."

Pudgy-faced mezzo-soprano Harold N. Arrowsmith, admitted "fat cat" (financier) of some of the activities of the Atlanta States Rights gang, five of whom are currently on trial for the bombing, assured me in Baltimore, Md., that his counsel is much in demand not only by the Arabs, but also by the FBI and the State Department.

BOASTED OF VISIT BY NASSER SPY

Arrowsmith protege George Lincoln Rockwell, who master-minded States Rights Party demonstrations in Atlanta and Washington last July under his own banner, the National Committee to Free America from Jewish Domination, told me in Arlington, Va., that Arrowsmith had brought "the head of Nasser's secret service" to see him.

The Baltimore oracle later told me this was "a damned lie" and he is probably right. The chances of Arrowsmith dealing with anyone as exalted as Nasser's secret service boss seem pretty remote.

Even the Egyptians are apt to buckle down under stress. During a long talk one night in Washington with an official of the UAR embassy, I was repeatedly assured that not only would no one from his government have dealings with "these scum," they would kick them out bodily if they dared to cross the embassy threshold.

But finally he raised his hands shoulder high in extreme exasperation and snarled: "What can we do if these people want to help tell our story? Is that our fault?"

"You know as well as I do that the Jews control your so-called free press here. Only the Zionists' voices are heard."

He might have been quoting straight from an American hate sheet, or from Cairo Radio. They're pretty hard to tell apart.

Peddling HATE In America: EGYPT'S NASSER

Cairo Tie Is Seen To Temple Bomb

By DAVID BURK
(Second article of a series)

A few hours after the Atlanta, Ga., temple blast on last Oct. 12, Cairo Radio, which is under the personal supervision of United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser, went on the air with an item titled: "Americans, Not Arabs, Bomb Synagogues."

There is a mass of evidence of direct liaison between agents of the UAR and leaders of the American race groups held responsible for the bombing by U. S. authorities. But five days were to elapse before this fact was revealed in an exclusive story in THE NEWS and it is uncertain whether the title on that broadcast item was self-conscious or not.

Cairo Radio added: "It is reported from the United States that unknown persons have destroyed a synagogue in the city of Atlanta."

"It is further reported that publications throughout the Southern states are carrying hostile articles against the Jewish community."

The radio did not explain where that second statement originated. The publications, however, could only have been those put out by America's neo-fascist groups whose activities identify them daily more closely as a Nasser fifth column in the U.S. Such hate sheets as Common Sense, published by Conde McGinley in Union City, N. J., and The Cross and the Flag, put out in Los Angeles by Gerald L. K. Smith, print a routine combination of pro-Nasser and anti-Jewish propaganda. These and other similar periodicals, most of which have been listed as subversive by the Attorney General, always flood into areas afflicted by racial incidents and violence.

Developments in Cairo that mid-October day grew more and more interesting.

The radio newsreader had barely gone off the air after his piece on the Atlanta bombing when further reports crowded over the international news wires. They told of the angry official and public reaction that had reverberated across the U. S.

Especially disturbing was the news that the FBI had been ordered to investigate.

Cairo Radio did not mention the dynamiting again. And an Egyptian editor acquaintance, here recently on a visit, told me that his and every other paper spiked the story of the bombing.

When THE NEWS ran its exclusive from Atlanta a few days later, asserting that the investigators' trail might lead from middle Georgia to the Middle East, a visible shudder went through Egyptian officials in the U. S., even though Cairo was not then named.

One member of Egypt's diplomatic service was overheard to remark, with a lamentable lack of diplomacy: "This is awful. Someone must have been very stupid."

Manhattan's James H. Madole, one of several petty fuhrers who strut around the U. S., produced an ingenious sidestep. At a meeting held in the Nola Studios above Steinway Hall, 113 W. 57th St., he charged (and repeated in a leaflet priced at a modest 25c a copy) that Atlanta's Jews had blown up their own synagogue.

CALLS REACTION ATTEMPT TO APPEASE JEWISH VOTE

Titled "The Untold Facts Behind the Synagogue Bombing," Madole said it "had set off a chain reaction from President Eisenhower . . . to five unemployed nationalists who are being legally crucified . . . to appease the Jewish vote. An unprecedented wave of publicity has swept the entire United States calling for the suppression of all 'hate literature.'"

By "hate literature," Madole explained, he means "any publication which has the temerity to criticize the un-American activities of the Jew and his multimillion-dollar propaganda agencies."

"Let us," Madole continued, "analyze the facts. Which group has gained more from the veritable epidemic of bombings and dynamitings culminating in the Atlanta explosion?"

The dynamitings in Clinton, Nashville, Jacksonville, Miami and other Southern cities, Madole said, have been used by the Jewish press "to rally Catholic and Protestant clergy behind the fundamentally Jewish-sponsored drive for complete racial integration."

SAYS BOMB THREATS AIDED B'NAI B'RITH

Moreover, he added, "reports of bomb threats and the wave of violence, bombings and 'hate literature' around the country brought pledges of increased contributions to support the American-Jewish Committee and the B'nai B'rith."

"Quite obviously," said Madole, who stares as he talks, with wide eyes that never flicker and seem to be focused on outer space, "the Jews were the only group to gain, both financially and economically, from the dynamitings. No sane American nationalist could expect anything but the intervention of federal authorities, a tidal wave of investigations, and unfavorable publicity in the national press."

However, laments the wild-eyed fuhrer, since Atlanta's Mayor William B. Hartsfield, Police Chief Herbert Jenkins and Prosecutor Paul Webb "are part of the Jewish fifth column in the Deep South . . . political traitors kept in power by the wealthy Jewish community . . . to open the door to racial integration," who can expect justice?

Another Madole leaflet lashes out at FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover's book on Communism in the U. S., "Masters of Deceit." One of the top propaganda lines of the hate groups, alongside their plugging of the Nasser cause, is one developed by Goebbels in the 30s.

"Communism," goes the slogan, backed up by a grab bag of fractured history, sociology and other sciences, "is Jewish."

For defining this charge in his book as "one of the most malicious myths that has developed in the United States," Hoover is fingered by Madole as "America's foremost master of deceit" who must be "planning to retire soon and wants to assure either a good job in the business world or a nice fat ADL (Anti-Defamation League) check."

(For the record, rival fuhrer Lincoln Rockwell of Arlington, Va., on a separate occasion, singled Hoover out for praise for "exposing Harry Truman as a liar when Truman promoted Jewish Communist spy Harry Dexter White in spite of a complete report from the FBI, then lied that the FBI had recommended the promotion.")

Madole, who periodically drops into burlesque-stage Jewish accents to wring a chuckle from his small audiences (of the 50 present Nov. 14, Madole claimed "many are Jews, secret agents and reporters,") then swung into his Arab routine.

"We must get together with the Arabs," he asserted. "We have a common cause. We are all anti-Jew. Nasser has sworn to get rid of all Egypt's Jews but his policy hasn't succeeded yet. There are still 25,000 of them there."

"But it's only a matter of time. I see some of these Arabs regularly and you can take that as a fact."

If anyone wanted fuller information on that subject, he said, there were some leaflets on the table at the back of the hall. There were indeed. Leaflets titled, "Murder, Rape and Devastation" (by Israel in Gaza), "The Story of Zionist Espionage in Egypt," "Gamal Abdul Nasser," "Gaza Under the Zionist Heel," and others.

EGYPTIAN DIPLOMATS EXPRESS 'SURPRISE'

They outnumbered the National Renaissance Party's own literature heavily. Each was rubber-stamped: "National Renaissance Party, 10 W. 90th St., New York, 24, N. Y." on one side and: "Egyptian State Information Dept., 22 Soliman Street, Cairo" on the other.

The Egyptian Embassy in Washington, and the Egyptian UN delegation headquarters and Arab Information Office in New York, all expressed surprise that their publications fall into such hands.

"Perhaps," suggested one helpful employe at the Arab Information Office, 120 E. 56th St.,

"they find one or two and then have them copied here."

The official, an Egyptian like all the top men in this office which purports to represent the nine-nation Arab League, thought the same answer might apply to Nasser boosts appearing in other racist publications around the country.

FAILS TO EXPLAIN EGYPTIAN REPRINTS

He could not explain, however, how articles published in American racist magazines and leaflets come to be reprinted in Nasser-controlled newspapers or quoted on Nasser's radio stations.

In their anxiety to be all-embracing, to reach the hearthstones of American families of different tastes and viewpoints, the raciest periodicals adopt a variety of fronts.

From California, Gerald L. K. Smith offers the Christian approach. From New Jersey, Conde McGirr tackles the Catholics.

Madole offers a combination that includes atheism and a party program that is "for a dictatorship in place of Jewish-controlled democracy," and will "solve all problems—social, economic, labor and juvenile delinquency." "Our slogan," he says, "is one nation, one race, one leader."

Charles Smith, under the auspices of whose New York Racist Forum Madole holds his indoor meetings, plies atheism, anti-Jew and anti-Negro theses, plus the offer of a "Free Book Catalogue" listing such titles as, "Symbols, Sex and the Stars," "An Open Letter to Jesus Christ," "Sex in Religion," "Short History of Sex Worship," and many others.

DON'T HATE NEGRO, JUST HIS 'BAD SEED'

Smith's monthly Truth Seeker, "Oldest Freethought Paper in the World—a Journal for Reasoners and Racists," splashes its pages with groups of items like this: "White racists do not hate the colored man. It is the bad seed within him which they desire to eliminate. The race leveler is the hate preacher."

Another of the breed, New York's Benjamin H. Freedman, who has been playing footsie with the Arabs since the mid-40s, puts out a turgid broadsheet crammed with a mosaic of history, past and present. He is a renegade Jew.

Merwin K. Hart, who hangs a shingle proclaiming "The National Economic Council, Inc." outside his office in the Empire State Building, makes his pitch in the sober language of a university lecturer and blandly lists on the back of his Economic Council Letter the Arab periodicals which reprint his stuff.

Robert H. Williams, who calls himself "major" although the Army stripped him of the rank in 1950, pretended he was in U. S. intelligence during World War II for the benefit of those who like their hate diet served from the top-secret drawer.

HOUSE COMMITTEE CHARGED 'DECEPTION'

The House Committee on Un-American Activities, in a report on "Neo-Fascist and Hate Groups" in December, 1954, called the monthly Intelligence Summary Williams put out from Santa Ana, Calif., "a deception". (Williams recently went out of the publishing business, probably temporary.)

Far from being a high-powered innercircle man, the committee said, "Williams' intelligence duty comprised less than a year as an administrative officer for the intelligence section of a bomber wing." Thus, adds the report, "he would have received no intelligence information dealing with the Communist conspiracy."

Frank L. Britton, a disciple of Gerald L. K. Smith, thumps the ultra-nationalist, defend-America tub from California. Petulant historian Harold N. A. Lowsmith of Baltimore, Md., who describes himself as a financially self-sufficient researcher with a string of university degrees, burrows in history for political worms and comes up with various documents handy for quoting out of context.

There is even, lest a stone be left unturned, something for the man who wants to be anti-Jew, anti-Negro and tolerant—all at once, a unique service provided by Lincoln Rockwell.

(Tomorrow: Egyptian officials find an identity of viewpoint with U. S. racists.)

Such U. S. hate sheets as Common Sense and The Cross and the Flag (above) print combinations of pro-Nasser and anti-Jewish propaganda and always flood into areas afflicted by racial incidents and violence. Cover on The Cross and the Flag's November, 1957, issue, pictures its founder, Gerald L. K. Smith.

Ideas of Cairo Aids, Our Racists Fit Like a Dagger and a Sheath

By DAVID BUK
(Third of five articles)

SOON after the Atlanta Temple bombing, Ambassador Kamil Abdel Rahim, suave, ambitious head of the Arab Information Office, was recalled to Cairo "for consultations." Reliable reports say Rahim, who inspired and founded Arab Information Office in early 1955, has been sacked.

The reports add that his job will probably be taken by a high-ranking officer of Nasser's army. Like the other Egyptian army officers attached to Nasser's United Nations delegation and embassy, the new man will wear civilian clothes and will be addressed as plain "Mr."

Rahim's recall at this time has sparked rumors that he is in hot water because the link between Cairo and America's anti-Negro, anti-Jew hate front had leaked out and come under active investigation by the FBI and the Internal Security division of the Department of Justice.

These rumors may or may not be true. But this much is known: Back in the early '50's, when Rahim was posted to Washington as Egyptian ambassador, he and his senior aids were flattered by the attentions they received from some of the racist fanatics. An identity of viewpoint was found on several issues, especially regarding the creation of the State of Israel and its support by Jews in the U. S.

RACIST EDITOR AT EMBASSY LUNCHEON

Gerald Winrod, who then edited a racist magazine called Defender, lunched with Rahim at the embassy. Robert Williams, who pretends to readers of his Intelligence Summary that he got the whole inside dope on the Communist conspiracy as an intelligence officer in World War II, was in touch with Omar Haliq of the Saudi UN delegation, offering pamphlets and mailing lists.

Subscriptions were taken to such hate sheets as Gerald L. K. Smith's The Cross and the Flag, Jewish renegade Benjamin Freedman, who backs Conde McGinley's subversive Common Sense and plugged Haj Amin el-Husseini, former Mufti of Jerusalem and Hitler's wartime "Arab Voice," paid frequent court and still does.

Rahim saw the potential in all these individuals and their outlets. Then, when he learned that the Arab Information Office, officially sponsored by all the Arab League states, would have to register with the Justice Department as the agent of a foreign power, Rahim quickly had himself transferred to the Yemen delegation to the UN to preserve his diplomatic immunity.

The Foreign Agents Registration Act, 1938, As Amended, is specific. Any person or organization engaging in propaganda in behalf of a foreign power must send the Justice Department a half-yearly report listing its staff, activities, income and expenses.

The Arab Information Office, which now has branches in Washington, Chicago, San Francisco and Ottawa, opened its New York headquarters in March, 1955.

BELIEVED TO HAVE $1 MILLION BUDGET

Conflicting statements by persons connected with the AIO and the various Arab states delegations to the UN has created some confusion over the size of the AIO budget. Rahim reportedly told diplomats when the office first opened that he had received an initial $400,000 and a further $300,000 later in the year.

The general impression in diplomatic circles is that the AIO annual budget hovers somewhere around $1 million. A conference of the Arab League executive early in 1958 was reported to have considered an appropriation of $1 million a year but there is no record that it was voted through.

In any case, the AIO return to the Foreign Agents' Registry at the Justice Department in Washington reports that it received $2,500 in December, 1954, to set up its New York office. Receipts for its first year totaled $130,000 and expenses were about the same.

Today, with a much larger staff and five offices instead of one, income and expenditures are no higher.

There seems also to be conflicting estimates on the size of the AIO staff. Its latest return to Washington, dated Sept. 3 last, lists 15 staff members, three of whom were stated to have resigned during the previous six-month period.

Any exact tally is complicated by the fact that each half-yearly report lists some new staff members and shows several others as having quit.

When I asked acting AIO chief, Prof. Hussein Kamel Selim, in New York, how many persons he had on his staff he said: "About 27." He added that the operation was running on a shoestring budget and they had just been forced to close the TV-radio section for lack of funds.

SMALL BUDGET, RAISED EYEBROWS

Selim normally heads the Washington branch of the AIO and draws an annual salary of $14,400 from the local office appropriation of $25,000. Rahim is paid by Egypt through the Yemeni government and neither his salary nor his allowances need be reported.

The smallness of the AIO budget caused the eyebrows of several Washington officials to rise when it was brought to their notice.

A senior accountant of the Internal Revenue Service, a man of long experience with corporation accounts, told me: "That's as small a shoestring as I've seen. Even with the total staff of 15 reported I fail to see how an organization with five branches can function on $130,000 a year."

As a comparison, the Justice Department offered the expenditures reported by other foreign agents. The South African Tourist Corporation with a staff of only two and one office, spends $131,000. The Swiss National Tourist Office in its New York branch alone spends $266,000 and has a staff of 26. The Indian Information Office spends $191,500 and tiny Portugal reported $140,000 spent in New York with a staff of 17.

A major power like Britain, on the other hand, with offices in several cities, spends more than $1 million on information, $270,000 through the British Broadcasting Corp., and another $801,000 on its tourist bureaus.

But the propaganda field is one in which money moves in mysterious ways. It is not even probable that the Arab Information Office is cooking its books. The penalties for any breach of the law are severe.

DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY COVERS THE CASH

But there is nothing to prevent the Egyptian embassy or UN delegation, or those of the other Arab states involved, from footing bills in behalf of the AIO. Moving behind their shield of diplomatic immunity their finances are not controlled in any way by the U. S. authorities.

Whatever monies pass to the American racist groups would certainly be handed over in cash. Even here there is no difficulty in avoiding official scrutiny. In any free money market, like Lebanon or Switzerland, both handily on the route from Cairo to New York, dollars can be bought in any quantity without the transaction being recorded.

Since diplomatic bags are sacrosanct, there is no way of telling how much cash, if any, is brought here in this way.

Except for Gerald L. K. Smith, none of the race groups has any special obligation under law to report either the amount of its income or its source. Smith is in a separate category because his Christian National Crusade takes an active, if never welcome, part in political campaigns and elections. This obliges him to report his expenses and income to the Clerk of the House of Representatives under the Corrupt Practices Act.

Smith, whose Cross and the Flag carries even more than the usual quota of Arab propaganda, picks his favorite candidates in every Congressional and Presidential election and announces that his "National Political Committee" will throw the full weight of its support behind the chosen ones.

In 1946, for example, Smith hurried his movement behind the Dixiecrats' States Rights ticket, headed by Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina.

Thurmond denounced the offer by declaring: "We do not invite and do not need the support of Gerald L. K. Smith or any other rabble rousers who use the race prejudice and class hatred to inflame the emotions of the people."

Smith switched his support to New York's Tom Dewey and Irving M. Ives, GOP nominees for Governor and U. S. Senator; Robert M. La Follette, GOP Senatorial candidate from Wisconsin, and three Wisconsin Representatives. All repudiated him "with vehemence" and Dewey and Ives jointly declared him "beneath contempt . . . and wholly un-American."

In 1949, Smith's announced decision to back John Foster Dulles for U. S. Senator from New York drew this declaration from the present Secretary of State: "Smith is not a citizen of our state and he has no business here. He can't vote here and I'm glad of it. I have utter contempt for what he stands for and he knows it."

Vice President Nixon, hearing Smith was rooting for him in the 1956 campaign, quickly retorted: "Generally, what Smith says should never be dignified by a comment. But this time . . . I think it is clearly necessary . . . for me to say that there is no place in the Republican Party for race-baiting merchants of hate like Gerald L. K. Smith."

One of the penalties of denouncing Smith and his fellow-racists in this manner, as their publications show, is that the denouncer will in turn be denounced—as a pawn of the Jews, a hireling of the Jews, or very often, however fantastically, simply as a Jew.

NO LAW AGAINST THE CONTRIBUTIONS

These elaborate and active political campaigns of Smith's, however, cost a good deal of money—according to his financial report to Congress.

His total reported expenditure from Jan. 1 to Oct. 30 last year, for example, was $141,859.29 and his receipts for the same period, $168,521.39. There is no law against any individual getting cash from suckers and tossing it around in the name of politics, but the authorities are currently taking an interest in the source of some of Smith's income.

The law demanding his financial statement also requires that the names and addresses be given of all persons donating $100 or more to his organization. Smith lists 151 of these but some curiosity has developed at the Justice Department since learning that some of these contributors seem to exist only on paper.

Of eight listed by Smith in the New York area I was able to confirm the existence only of three. Of the others, either they all contrived to get left off voting lists, out of telephone books and other records or, if persons of the right name lived in the area identified by Smith, they assert they have never heard of either Smith or his setup.

Smith, on his own printed admissions, is virtually in constant contact with Egyptian officials and diplomats.

WRITES ABOUT HIS 'GUEST FROM EGYPT'

In last January's issue of The Cross and the Flag, he boldly identifies one of his friends in an article titled: "A Guest From Egypt." On a visit to Washington, writes Smith, "I was called upon by a brilliant young man who is a citizen of Egypt. His name is Ibrahim Baghdady. He is a journalist and a radio commentator."

Baghdady, however, is not a journalist and radio commentator. He is a major in army intelligence, one of the platoon of intelligence agents Nasser spikes his foreign missions with.

There is little point in listing them all. But intelligence officers sent to the U. S. on short visits, generally in the role of "diplomatic couriers," are worthy of mention.

So also is the fact that the Egyptian State Information Department in Cairo, publisher of most of the tracts distributed and reprinted by America's racists, is a branch of Nasser's security and intelligence network. Lt. Col. Abdel Khadr Hattem, who took over the department during my years in Cairo and who now is deputy minister for presidential affairs, had previously been in command of a group of agents whose function was to snoop on foreign correspondents, tap their telephones and steam open their mail. He is in charge of all press and radio activities.

The Nasser agents who come here in sheep's clothing are naturally as free as any other visitor to travel around the U. S. and meet whom they please. That is one of the advantages of working in a free country, a fact Egyptians, especially, would appreciate.

Seeks Law to Halt Racists

Washington, Jan. 21 (Special).—Rep. Frank C. Osmer Jr. (R-N. J.) has introduced two bills in Congress which would make bombing of religious and educational institutions and the distribution of "hate" propaganda federal offenses punishable by fine or imprisonment or both.

"Individuals who perpetrate these acts," said Osmer, "are committing direct acts of subversion. The weakening of the American solidarity by attacks on religious or racial groups plays right into the Communists' hands."

Peddling HATE In America: EGYPT'S NASSER

Cairo Man Explains His Boss, But Sometimes He's at a Loss

By DAVID BURK

(Fourth article of a series)

WHEN the Arab Information Office opened in New York in 1955 it informed the Department of Justice in its first registration statement as a foreign agent: "Registrant will strive to further the common interests in peaceful developments, trade, religion, cultural exchange and tourism."

The AIO's acting head today, in the interim between the reported firing of Ambassador Kamil Abdel Rahim, long a friend of America's lunatic race-hate fringe, and the appointment of a senior army officer to the post, is Prof. Hussein Kamel Selim.

Selim, an able, soft-voiced diplomat who is an apologist for Egyptian President Nasser's ambitious adventures in the Middle East and elsewhere, told me that the AIO was set up by the Arab League to spread the Arab philosophy of tolerance.

"We want good and friendly relations with America and the West," he assured me in his excellent English. "We Arabs are a kind, tolerant and hospitable people. Our entire cultural orientation is toward the West."

All this is undoubtedly true of the nimble-minded, affable Selim, who studied in Britain, taught economics brilliantly at Cairo University before joining Nasser's government, and has lectured in the U.S. Asked if he included Nasser in his good-natured embrace, he said: "Of course I do. What has Nasser ever done to make you think otherwise?"

CALLS THEM INTERNAL, 'SPONTANEOUS'

A few items came to mind. Such as the vain attempts since 1953 to subvert and annex the Sudan, the assassination of Ibrahim el-Sholhi, principal aid of neighboring Libya's King Idris, the civil war in Lebanon, the repeated forays against Jordan's young Hussein, the coup that made Syria Egypt's northern province.

"My dear fellow," said Selim with lips that smiled and eyes that didn't, "everyone knows that these events were spontaneous developments from within those countries. No one has ever proved that Nasser had anything to do with them."

This view, along with such others as Nasser's supposed anti-Communism, is assiduously spread here by the racist groups acting as a Nasser fifth column in the United States.

It is not shared unanimously by the Arabs themselves, however. President Habib Bourguiba of Tunisia, for example, recently quit the Arab League and broke off relations with Egypt, charging Nasser was meddling in the affairs of other states, had plotted his assassination, and was "unaware of the dangers of Communism."

FROM THE ATLANTIC TO PERSIAN GULF

Bourguiba riled Nasser especially with his parting shot in a globally-reported broadcast from Tunis. He declared that, contrary to Nasser's claims, the Arab world was united "only in poverty" and that the Bourguiba alternative to Nasser's flirtation with Moscow was cooperation with the West.

Using a technique significantly similar to that employed by America's racists when, under attack, Nasser's personally-supervised Cairo Radio charged on Oct. 15 that Bourguiba had been bought by the U. S. and made to "betray the Arab League."

"Imperialism," Cairo went on, "has tried out all its agents and every one has been destroyed by the people. All those who stand in the way of the people will be destroyed by the people.

"We shall establish a free and united Arab world from the Atlantic Ocean to the Persian Gulf despite all the conspiracies of imperialism. This is our will in Tunisia, our desire in Sudan, our goal in Algeria."

Such manifestoes, of course, are intended only for local consumption in the Middle East. Abroad, Nasser's men must preach only the Arab will for friendship with the West and its leaders.

Cairo, in its stateside-asserted desire for friendship with the U.S., cannot, however, prevent America's official radio monitors from picking up such manifestations of brotherly love as this broadcast to pro-Western Jordan last Oct. 6:

"Eisenhower, the old man of the imperialist American dollar, visits his country's hospitals every now and then to undergo some operation or other. This has gone on so long that his body has become one big mass of drugs. . . . Eisenhower's body typifies imperialism, which is strangling.

Hussein Kamel Selim
"We don't hate anyone"

"The patching, reconciliations and taking of sedatives cannot obstruct the self-liberation movements throughout the world. . . . The ultimate treatment for a septic part of the body is amputation, and as the many patches on Eisenhower's body will eventually cause him to wind up on the city dump, so will the imperialist struggle definitely fall into the abyss."

MILITARY MISSION IN JORDAN ASSAILED

Another Nasser broadcast, on Oct. 15, denounced the U. S. military mission to Jordan as "all high-ranking officers, more than a third of whom have worked under Allen Dulles, chief of American intelligence. . . . and . . . more concerned with spying and plotting than its stated purpose."

Moreover, the broadcast added,

"some of the mission members are Zionists . . . who will convey your army's secrets to Israel. Beware of this mission and endeavor to crush it."

Prof. Selim has no comment on these broadcasts but he is anxious to point out that Nasser is a good Moslem and the Moslem religion teaches that "Moses and Jesus must be revered alongside Mohammed." Therefore, Selim insists, neither Nasser nor his representatives could possibly have anything to do with "lunatic Americans who preach race hatred."

"Don't you see," said Selim earnestly, "if we are associated in any way with these infamous hate groups, our cause would be harmed, not helped. We don't hate anyone. Why should we?"

Selim expressed amazement when specific instances of Nasser's men consorting with racists were mentioned. Such as the time when Abdel Mawgoud Hassan, press officer of the Egyptian UN delegation, addressed one of New York fuchrer James Madole's muck-raking meetings.

ADMITS HE HAS LIST OF FASCIST GROUPS

"Perhaps," said Selim hopefully, "Hassan didn't know who Madole was."

He conceded that the office has a copy of the Attorney General's list of subversive fascist groups, which includes both Madole and his National Renaissance Party. He also conceded that it behooves a diplomat to make inquiries before accepting invitations to address meetings.

Hassan himself, when nailed on the subject during a recent television interview, at first denied that he had been present. When, however, he was shown a photograph of himself sitting beside Madole on the rostrum, he went through the rest of the program like a man with violent stomach cramps.

What, I asked Selim, about the racists who visit official Arab offices and join Arab diplomats in the delegates' lounge at the UN? The most prominent of these is Benjamin H. (for Harrison) Freedman, 68, retired toilet goods manufacturer and son of Moritz and Hannah Kaferman Freedman, immigrants from 19th

GRILLED FOR DAYS ON WITNESS STAND

Freedman, who once described himself in court as "without religion, though I was born a Jew, practice Catholicism and belong to the Masons," has a 10-year record of anti-Semitism.

"What can we do if such persons approach us and want to talk?" Selim asked me blandly. "You know how kindly we Arabs are. Could we tell such a man to go away and leave us alone?"

I said that, since Selim himself felt association with such persons damaged the Arab cause which he was here to further, the only course seemed to be a good firm snub. Selim renewed the bland smile that moved his lips but not his eyes.

Freedman's record came out in a New York court in 1948. He was a witness for the plaintiff when attorney Hallam M. Richardson, leading light of Freedman's League for Peace with Justice in Palestine, sued an anti-Nazi organization for libel for saying he had been "long known in the halls of pro-fascist propaganda."

Under skillful cross-examination Freedman spent several days on the witness stand. The sum of his testimony proved of greater value to the defense than to Richardson.

Copies of cables exchanged between Freedman and Haj Amin el-Husseini, former Mufti of Jerusalem who broadcast to the Arabs for Hitler during World War II, were produced in court. Freedman also admitted frequently visiting Arab friends in Washington and having spent $100,000 of his own money to advertise his cause.

This last fact resulted in a glowing eulogy by the ex-mufti, printed in Cairo and titled: "An American Jew Spends His Efforts and Riches in Protection of the Arabs."

The libel claim was thrown out of court and the judge described Freedman as an "international meddler and propagandist."

HE HAS GOOD OF THE U.S. IN MIND

When I called on Freedman at his sumptuous 960 Park Ave. apartment I learned that his views have not changed in the last 10 years. Before I was admitted, I had to prove my identity, declare that I was not a Jew and do not work for any investigative agency.

"The Zionists," Freedman assured me, "drove me into the arms of men like McGinley and Gerald L. K. Smith. I'd neither met nor heard of them before the Zionists started to smear me."

He scanned me piercingly through a pince-nez and said, "I am thinking only of the good of the United States. I was born here, you know. That's why I believe we should recognize not only Red China, but also North Korea and East Germany, in the interests of the survival of the U.S. and the free world."

The U.S., he said, has only 6% of the total world population while Afro-Asia has 80%. By alienating Afro-Asia, the U.S. was destroying its commercial potential.

Freedman puts out a sheet called Fact For Fact. It describes itself as "An official publication of the Foundation for Advanced Research, a nonprofit membership foundation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware." The foundation address is given as 505 Fifth Ave., but don't waste time looking it up in the directories. It isn't listed.

Fact For Fact—"only research reveals all the facts...the whole truth"—offers the usual line about Communism being part of the Jewish conspiracy; the Jews not being Semites at all but descendants of a converted Asian tribe called the Khazars; and Eisenhower, Dulles and everyone else who does anything the racists disapprove of being the tools of the Zionists.

CHARGES GIANT SMEAR CAMPAIGN

After Eisenhower signed the Middle East Doctrine in 1957, says Freedman, for example, "every media of mass-communications in the U. S. owned and controlled by the Zionist hierarchy, the leading newspapers, the television and radio nationwide networks, the leading weekly magazines, the motion-picture newsreels and the many other equally effective media in the United States also owned and controlled by the Zionist hierarchy, immediately commenced the most unjustified and unwarranted smear-campaign accusing Egypt and Syria of being countries "controlled by international Communism." The purpose was quite obvious.

The denial of Mideast Communism or Communist inclination is a favorite racist theme that does not bear genuine inspection. One of the commonest claims is that Nasser outlawed the Communist Party in Egypt. He did no such thing because Egypt never really had a Communist Party to outlaw. He did, however, outlaw every other political party to clear the way for himself.

REDS TOO BUSY BATTLING REDS

The Communists had been illegal under Farouk and had been underground long before Nasser's so-called revolution in 1952. And characteristically Middle Eastern, they split into seven groups instead of fighting for unity. From that point on they ceased to concern the authorities because they were too busy fighting each other to be dangerous.

The Soviet embassy in Egypt, fully aware of these facts, shrewdly decided it would reap a bigger dividend by ignoring the Communists and dealing directly with Nasser.

Peddling HATE In America: EGYPT'S NASSER

An Anti-Red Mask Covers True Face Of Fascism in U.S.

By DAVID BURK
(Last article of a Series)

AMERICA'S lunatic racist fringe poses as vehemently anti-Communist. The obvious reason for this is that there are potentially millions in the country today who, strongly anti-Communist, would refuse to support any movement preaching inter-racial hatred.

However, by asserting that Communism is part of a Jewish international conspiracy and throwing in vicious slanders of the Negro for good measure, the fascists can make some headway. By whitewashing Nasser's regime and his relationship with Moscow with the assertion that he is the only anti-Communist in the Middle East, they also can satisfy the patron whose cause, authorities believe, they are being paid to serve.

Thinking Americans—some 99.9%—still wait to be convinced, however. Especially in the face of such denunciations as this:

"Advocates of both Fascism and Communism seek to destroy our constitutional government and supplant it with a godless dictatorship in which the individual is deprived of his rights and liberties to become an abject slave. Both derive their strength by dividing their opposition—Communism choosing to set class against class, while fascism incites racial and religious discord."

HOUSE COMMITTEE DRAWS A PICTURE

The words are those of the House Committee on Un-American Activities in a recent report on neo-fascist and hate groups in the U. S. The committee adds: "Despite the similarities between Communism and Fascism, their propaganda to the effect that each is the foremost opponent of the other is undoubtedly a major contributor to whatever support each has been able to muster in our population."

But, the committee warns, "the appearance of neo-fascist organizations and methods . . . serves only to impede the intelligent, united effort necessary in the current life and death struggle with Communism. . . . Depending on the type of audience to be reached, this (fascist) propaganda is couched in language ranging from violent vituperation to subtle innuendoes."

The committee investigators found that the various groups frequently cooperate with exchanges of literature and many "are led by racketeers primarily for the purpose of reaping financial profit."

Conde McGinley of Union, N. J., said by the committee to be making at least $30,000 a year out of Common Sense and his book lists, recently put out a billboard-size sheet giving a run-down of a Goebbels' fabrication of three decades ago—the so-called "Protocols of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion."

The Protocols were exploded as a fiction in the 30s, but McGinley evidently felt the time was ripe to produce them again. And if he succeeded in selling no else on them, he certainly triumphed with Gamal Abdel Nasser in Cairo.

Toward the end of October, in a remarkable interview with an Indian magazine writer, Nasser declared that he had just read the Protocols for the first time and thought them "important." They demonstrated to him, he said, that Europe is "in the hands of 300 Zionists" and that there is an international plot in which Zionism and imperialism (i.e. the U. S., Britain and France) "are marching hand in hand with Israel."

McGinley handed down the protocols to his followers with an appeal to "read and study this document carefully." It speaks, he wrote, "in behalf of the American people . . . is prepared with-out anger . . . (because) many Gentile Americans have been drawn into this plot by ignorance, through blackmail, through clever persuasion."

A great deal of the juggled history which propagandists like McGinley use as the basis for their outpourings is dredged up by pudgy bachelor Harold N. Arrowsmith, who admits having financed Arlington, Va., fuhrer George Lincoln Rockwell and the Yorkville thugs Rockwell sent to Washington and Atlanta to sing his hymn of hate.

Arrowsmith and Rockwell are currently squabbling. Each told me at great length, and in highly slanderous terms, what he had against the other. The main reason, apparently, was Arrowsmith's indignation at being identified by Rockwell as the "fat cat" (financier) mentioned in Rockwell's letter to one of the men charged with the Atlanta Temple blast.

HE LIKES TO STAY OUT OF LIMELIGHT

Arrowsmith made no bones about his preference for staying in the background. He described himself as a research worker with "fortunately a private income large enough to let me do the things I like." He estimated this income at "around $15,000 a year" from an inheritance from his late father, Dr. Harold Noel Arrowsmith, longtime canon of Baltimore's Cathedral Church of the Incarnation.

He lives with his mother in patrician style in the quiet of a wealthy Baltimore suburb and the family is listed in the city's Blue Book. I was received after identifying myself to a Negro manservant at the screened front door and shown into a study, elegantly furnished but littered with samples of Arrowsmith's work.

Since the spring of 1957, said Arrowsmith, he has been devoting himself to digging in Washington archives and at the British Museum in London for the "truth behind the Zionist-Communist conspiracy." He presented me with a sheaf of extracts from Hansard (British Parliament's equivalent of the Congressional Record), official reports by H. M. Government and articles written by a variety of personages ranging from Zionist leaders to Winston Churchill.

"When I showed this stuff to the British Information Service in New York," boasted Arrowsmith, beaming cherubically, "they nearly fell off their chairs."

John Peck, head of the BIS in the U. S., later told me he recalled "some strange individual who came in with a pile of bumph but we didn't pay much attention to it." Peck added: "Goodness knows why he went all the way to the British Museum. We have all these documents in our library here."

Asked about Lincoln Rockwell's statement that Arrowsmith office had taken the "head of Nassir's secret service" to visit him, Arrowsmith said: "That's a damned lie. I know these people, of course; but I wouldn't take anyone like that to see a scoundrel like Rockwell."

KNOW NOTHING ABOUT BOMBING, HE SAYS

In fact, it was mainly on the subject of his erstwhile protege that Arrowsmith really opened up. He said: "I thought I could handle Rockwell but I found that I was wrong. He's a dangerous character. His political ideas are asinine and he has a fuhrer complex."

However, he revealed, he had made a $15,200 cash down payment on Rockwell's house on Arlington's Williamsburg Blvd., and spent more than $6,000 to install photo-litho printing equipment in the cellar.

"It was very naughty of Rockwell to say I was his 'fat cat,'" Arrowsmith pouted angrily. "I didn't have anything to do with the Atlanta bombing. I knew nothing about it. All I did was pay the cost of Rockwell's picketing in July in Washington and Atlanta and for the printing of 15,000 or 20,000 leaflets."

In Arlington, Rockwell was nearly as loquacious. He is 40, the same age as Arrowsmith, but tall, well-built and with an air of earnest sincerity that is quite disarming. He, too, checked my identity carefully before admitting me, then politely asked if he might see inside my coat and briefcase to ensure that I was carrying no recording equipment.

He repaid me with the "signal honor" of allowing me to be the first newsman ever to see his cellar workshop-office.

"Everyone's gunning for me," he said, explaining his caution. "Can't be too careful."

Since police found some personal letters of his in the home of Wallace Allen, one of the men currently under indictment for the Atlanta bombing, telephone threats have been a daily occurrence, Rockwell declared. Things had gotten so bad, he added, that he was in the process of sending his wife and three children to Iceland, Mrs. Rockwell's original home.

Then he was launched on the subject of Arrowsmith.

"He picked me," said Rockwell (and these notes were taken in his presence), "because he wanted a tough anti-Jew fighter. He wanted them tougher and tougher."

BOASTS OF BUNCH OF REAL TOUGHIES

"I've got a bunch of boys in Yorkville who are real tough. Arrowsmith wanted my boys. All I have to do is send for them and they'd be here in a flash. They'll do anything I ask them."

These "boys" also were mentioned in Rockwell's letter to Allen, which said: "The boys are coming from New York for the the work here—no guts in the local citizens. . . ." One of the young bully-boys who went south at Rockwell's bidding for the Atlanta and Washington picketing last July (most of the slogans were pro-Nasser) was 21-year old George Leggett, 111-29 78th Ave., Forest Hills, leader of a group in Queens and Yorkville called the United Nordic Federation.

Leggett, who has no German blood, used the name of George von Lichter and was known as the Fuhrer of Forest Hills. He is currently in jail awaiting sentence for plotting with his gang last January to rob a bank of $40,000 to finance an upstate camp for "training storm troopers." He was free on bail at the time of his southern trip.

It came out, too, that another gentleman for whom Leggett and his gang had performed various services was New York fuhrer James Madole.

Rockwell, who says he attended Brown University and was a U. S. Navy commander in World War II, then laid the policy of his National Committee to Free America from Jewish Domination on the line. In fact, he gave me a preview of a new seven-point program "that hasn't even gone to the printer's yet."

The essence of his philosophy—"unlike Arrowsmith's," he pointed out—is his basic tolerance. He said: "Most of the people on our side, 90% of those who work in the open, are crackpots. Isolationists, anti-Negro, totally anti-Jewish, many anti-Catholics. Most are fanatics on one or two subjects."

"We, on the other hand, are religiously uncommitted, international, pro-Negro, pro-private enterprise, national socialist and anti-capitalist. . . . The basic aspects of our world view are the same as Adolf Hitler's. He was a gift from an inscrutable providence. A world savior in his time."

THEY'D ESTABLISH A NEGRO NATION

He described himself as "anti-dictatorship, though no part of society has the right to complete freedom." The Jews, under Rockwellism, would all be carefully investigated and "those found to have had no part in the grand Marxist conspiracy would not be harmed."

The Rockwellians also have the answer to the integration problem. They would, he said, "appropriate the $10 billion now being spent on integration to establish an ultra-modern, fully-equipped nation for the Negro in Africa."

Rockwell declared that he has "500 hard-core supporters spread through the world in Egypt, Iceland, the U. S. and Europe." There is no membership card as yet and no real organization as such, he said, but added:

"Since the Atlanta business I've been living on pennies. I'm thinking of trying to register as a foreign agent and working for the Arabs. I want to cut off money to Israel. I think the Arabs should be willing to pay me a salary for that."

"Also," he added, evilly with an eye to the fat in faces some of his longer-established rival fuhrers are racking up, "I plan to form a national organization with myself at the head on a salaried basis."

As I climbed back into my taxi outside Rockwell's neat suburban home I felt I had come full cycle. The jigsaw pieces had clicked into place. Rockwell was tied in with Arrowsmith and thus with Madole and with McGinley and Smith and Freedman and with Cairo, in a network of subversive hate. Each group feeding on the others like jungle animals, on a diet of shady finance, propaganda gimmicks and methods and ideas that peek of Red Moscow and Nazi Berlin.

ARAB PARTICIPATION AND INFLUENCE IN DISTRIBUTION OF HATE LITERATURE IN THE UNITED STATES IS - MIDDLE EAST

A series of five articles appeared in the "New York Daily News" from 1/20-24/59 written by David Burk entitled "Peddling Hate in America: Egypt's Nasser." In these articles Burk accuses the Arabs (particularly President Nasser of the United Arab Republic) for fomenting much of anti-Jewish acts perpetrated by hate groups in United States by alleging anti-Jewish literature prepared by the Arabs has been given to Americans active in racist and hate campaigns for distribution. The articles further point out that some of these racists have been in contact with Arab officials and establishments in this country and some of their publications have contained pro-Nasser propaganda, the implication being that such propaganda was furnished by the Arabs. One Photostat each of these articles is enclosed for the use of each recipient office.

These articles specifically name certain persons as being leaders of a hate corps acting in behalf of President Nasser of the United Arab Republic in spreading anti-Jewish literature in this country through their publications or their activities. The names of these individuals together with the identities of the offices of origin of investigation concerning them or their publications are:

- (1) James H. Madole: head of the National Renaissance Party, New York City.

New York is office of origin of current investigation entitled "National Renaissance Party, IS - X," New York file 105-6112 and also case entitled "James H. Madole, Registration Act - United Arab Republic," New York file 105-6129.

Bufiles reflect Rockwell was suspect in connection with the bombing of the Jewish attention referred to WFO file 100-34886 entitled "George Lincoln Rockwell, Information Concerning," Richmond's file number not known.

In order to ascertain the extent of Arab participation and influence in the distribution of hate literature in the United States, a file has been opened bearing instant caption.
Each office is instructed to make a complete and thorough review of its files concerning the above individuals and publications published by those persons located in their respective divisions in order to locate all information which may indicate Arab influence, associations or connection in any way with above persons or their publications. You should be particularly alert for any information indicating that articles prepared by the Arabs or constituting Arab propaganda are published in any of the publications. You should also be alert for all information showing contacts on the part of the above-mentioned racists with Arab officials or diplomatic establishments in the United States. In addition to a thorough file review, you should also contact established sources and informants for any information they may have in this regard. All leads developed therefrom should be afforded thorough and intensive investigation. The results of your efforts in connection with above should be set forth in detail, properly documented as to source, in report form under instant caption and submitted within 30 days from receipt of this letter.

Object of this file is to compile a complete picture of this particular situation and to effect a definite separation of this investigation, for report purposes, from any past or present investigations of these individuals, their organizations and their publications. This will eliminate reporting of extraneous data in connection with this case.

- ① — Reports in this case should be designed to provide
2 — a well-documented picture of the background of the individual
3 — involved, the nature and extent of his participation in 4 — distribution of hate literature, the allegations in the news articles indicating his connections or associations with the Arabs, any prior data available in files on this point, and results of investigation to determine extent of participation and influence in or control of his activities by Arabs. Reports should be planned and coordinated so that Newark Office report, for example, will be restricted to data regarding Conde McGinley. In some offices several individuals will be involved and report should be broken down according to individuals. All offices should bear in mind in connection with interviews conducted as to whether persons being interviewed can furnish information regarding individuals in other offices and promptly furnish such data to appropriate field offices for inclusion in reports prepared by them.

In the event recipient offices are aware of other individuals or publications which allegedly are being used by or cooperating with Arabs in distributing hate literature, such information should also be set forth in these reports.

In any instance where data is developed or available indicating possibility of Registration Act violation separate cases should be opened promptly aimed at obtaining evidence and the investigation should be given continuous and preferred attention. Bureau should be advised immediately when case is opened. Concise summary of data developed in such individual case, carefully documented as to source, should also be reported in this control file.

With regard to the individuals mentioned as racists in the "New York Daily News" articles as set forth above, the recipient offices may confine their file reviews to those persons and publications located in their respective divisions with the exception of the Washington Field Office and New York Office. The latter two offices are instructed to review their files and contact appropriate sources concerning each of those individuals and publications inasmuch as Arabic diplomatic establishments with which those persons may have been in contact are located in Washington, D. C., and New York City. In addition, WFO and New York should thoroughly

Ties Arabs Here to Hate Drive

Washington, Jan. 19 (Special).—Arab students at U. S. universities, organized and financed by their governments, are spreading propaganda, much of it anti-American, in an effort to mobilize opinion behind the Arab cause, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N. Y.) told THE NEWS exclusively today.

Keating and his fellow GOP Senator from New York, Jacob K. Javits, toured the South at the end of last year to probe the flareup of racist violence and hate propaganda.

Javits told THE NEWS that he, Keating and other Senators, including Prescott Bush (R-Conn.) and Hugh Scott (R-Pa.), plan to fight for enactment of a group of bills "to curb hate bombings and outlaw the hate propaganda which incites to violence."

Active in 30 Colleges

"Any alliance between Arab groups and hate propagandists," said Javits, "must undergo the pitiless gleam of public disclosure. THE NEWS is performing a great service by focusing public attention on those here at home and abroad who would wage a massive campaign of hate in the U. S."

Keating said: "There is telling evidence that students from the Arab nations have engaged in the U. S. in hostile propaganda activities financed by their governments. They have engaged in coordinated efforts to mobilize opinion behind the Arab cause through the Organization of Arab Students, which has chapters on some 30 college and university campuses in the U.S.

Sen. Jacob Javits • Sen. Kenneth Keating

"There has also been a constant drumfire of anti-Jewish propaganda from this organization, which is subsidized by the Arab League.

Anti-Israeli, Anti-American

"Petitions have been circulated. Newspaper advertisements have been purchased. Student information centers have been opened and political pamphlets distributed. The tenor of all these activities has been strongly pro-Arab and anti-Israeli, and often anti-American."

Keating added: "Everyone in the U.S. has the right to express his views and this freedom extends 100% to visitors. But when there is an organized attempt to influence public opinion in this country, directed and financed by foreign governments, such people become in fact, as well as in spirit, agents of a foreign power and should be so registered under our laws.

Mailings Timed to Bombs

Javits, referring to the fact-finding tour of the south he made with Keating and other Senators, said they found that large hate mailings frequently preceded the dynamitings like that of the Atlanta Temple last October.

"I will read THE NEWS series very closely and plan to take up the facts disclosed in it with the Department of Justice in order to determine what action can be taken under present law, and to see if there is need for additional legislation to deal with the vicious activities of the racists," Javits said.

Apparent anti-Jewish propaganda could then be compared with similiar material appearing in the racist publications which would be at least an indication that American racist publications are following the Arab line in this regard. No doubt some of this Arab material might be paraphrased by the American publications to the extent that it could not be definitely identified. However, it is believed that in many instances there would be no doubt as to the Arab origin of this material in racist material.

If definite indications appear that that anti-Jewish propaganda is finding its way into American racist media in its entirety, in part or even by paraphrasing, then inquiry could be made of the particular publication or publications involved.

Attempts could then be made to determine the degree of influence being exerted in one form or another on the Americans responsible for reproducing this material in American publications.

The Arab Information Center is one of the agencies known to the NYO which is responsible for a great deal of the distribution of Arab propaganda in the United States. However, the following countries represent more or less the principal Arab countries who conceivably could be responsible for Arab propaganda in the United States:

- Jordan
- Lebanon
- Saudi Arabia

- United Arab Republic

international Jewry which controls this country financially and politically; and that these organizations are not membership organizations but represent followers who contribute to them or subscribe to their literature. Although GERALD L. K. SMITH and his close associates are not known to have appealed to illegal action, the tenor of their statements and program is intensely anti-Semitic as indirectly indicated by the slogan of the Christian Nationalist Party, announced in 1950, which was "One Faith - One Race - One Nation." No credence should be given to any allegations that SMITH's meetings are "secret." It is true that SMITH and his staff hold policy meetings and the like restricted to themselves but that statements of "secret" meetings regarding their appearance at the Embassy Auditorium are intended only to spur interest in attendance. It is possible that small groups of CNC followers may hold meetings of a sort, but that such meetings receive no organizational direction or control from CNC Headquarters. (The CNC, as a "national political committee" makes regular reports to Congress under the Federal Corrupt Practices Act, listing names of contributors of more than $100.)

ROBERT H. WILLIAMS's "Williams Intelligence Summary" is the subject of Bufile 105-10091.

GERALD L. K. SMITH's "Christian Nationalist Crusade" is the subject of Bufile 62-43818.

Literature of the above persons and organizations contains voluminous material critical of Jews and Israel differing not at all in character and content from what would be expected of persons writing in the anti-Semitic field. Practically all of this material, of course, is favorable from the viewpoint of Arab interests, however only those instances where mention was made of contacts with persons connected with Arab state official establishments or suggestive of actual Arab influence have been included in this report.

In other instances, notably in SMITH's literature, there are the usual references to public sources or quotations from such sources (newspapers, news magazines, letters from Arab propagandists or officials published in newspapers, all the way to articles culled from Jewish publications), editorial comment on current events in the Middle East and revelations of the results of SMITH's interviews with Arab refugees or persons interested in Arab refugee problems - all dealt with in a manner to serve SMITH's ends (in retaining his following) as well as, if not more so than, Arab interests. Where the one begins and the other ends cannot be determined. Consequently, it has been considered that the reporting of voluminous anti-Israel (necessarily pro-Arab) articles would serve no valuable purpose at this time.

It would not be surprising were it learned that DAVID BURK's articles in the "New York Daily News" are merely part of a program influenced by the Anti-Defamation League itself, which has been in a running feud with SMITH and others - not always to its own advantage - for years; the one side seeking to involve SMITH and the others with the authorities, and the others on their part demanding investigation by the House Committee on Un-American Activities of the ADL as a subversive organization dedicated to serving Israeli interests and itself acting in violation of the Foreign Agents Registration Act and the Corrupt Practices Act. At any rate, BURK's articles are filled with little fact and considerable hint, as exemplified in this report, (at least as far as concerns SMITH, [redacted] and WILLIAMS), and apparently have been prompted by his concern to put the "nearly 90 dynamite blasts (that) have echoed around the country in the last two years, aimed mainly at Jews, Negroes and sincere Christians who have publicly backed these groups)" into a coordinated pattern. It is known that the ADL is very much interested in bills to be presented to Congress, making bombings of churches, synagogues, schools, etc., violations of federal law.

b7c

It is not recommended that a Registration Act investigation be conducted concerning WILLIAMS because he has already ceased the publishing field (since 1957).

Because [redacted] has publicly staunchly denied the ADL accusation of having been paid $500.00 for reprinting an article allegedly prepared by an Arab propagandist, it is not recommended that a Registration Act investigation be conducted at this time pending New York's contact with the ADL for full particulars.

Because so much is known concerning SMITH's contacts with Arab officials, much based on his own admissions, but so little concerning a possible arrangement that could be construed as an agreement or contract such as is required in Registration Act violations, and because his literature is so written as to discount the possibility of indicating such an arrangement were there one, it is not recommended that a Registration Act investigation be conducted concerning him.

REQUEST TO THE BUREAU:

The Bureau is requested to consider the advisability of direct interview with GERALD L. K. SMITH or other of his associates, [redacted] and ROBERT H. WILLIAMS should information supposedly obtainable from ADL in New York City leave insufficient basis for conducting a Registration Act investigation.

DETAILS:

b7c

This investigation is based upon a series of five articles entitled "Peddling Hate in America: Egypt's NASSER" by DAVID BURK which appeared in the "New York Daily News" during January 20-24, 1959.

In the first article of the series, BURK stated (in part), referring to the "nearly 90 dynamite blasts (that) have echoed around the country in the last two years aimed mainly at Jews, Negroes and sincere Christian citizens who have publicly backed these groups," that: "practically every operation fitted into a national pattern which, authorities believe, was etched by a loose-linked network of American neo-fascist groups peppered around the country. This hate corps...today has emerged as a fifth column acting in behalf of President GAMAL ABDEL NASSER of the so-called United Arab Republic and his dreams of empire...The race groups here, coordinated rather than organized and with a total following throughout the country that officials estimate at not more than a few thousand, are zealously following NASSER's line. But what, you may ask, could NASSER possibly want with a fifth column in the United States? The answer, as officials at the Department of Justice explained it to me, is transparently simple....The NASSER-dominated segment of the Arab world, fed on an information diet prescribed by our native racists, frankly regards not only American Jewry but the U. S. Administration, too, as the fountainhead of Israel's moral and financial help. Looked at in this light, NASSER must knock out Israel's backers in the U. S. before he can keep his pledge to his followers to knock out Israel itself. The U. S. thus becomes a legitimate 'second front.' NASSER himself, back in the early 50s when he still was the unassuming Col. NASSER, Egyptian prime minister under fatherly [redacted] whom he later liquidated as subtly as any trained Kremlinite, once told me bitterly in Cairo. 'America is in the hands of the Zionists. The Jews control the press and government. The Arab voice is never heard. How can we fight back?' For at least four years now he has been fighting back, using Egyptian military intelligence officers and men who can hide behind diplomatic immunity as the contact men, and a group of individuals and periodicals as his mouthpieces. The periodicals, all neatly arranged in alphabetical order on the Attorney General's List of Subversive Publications, rarely go to press without some item of NASSER's propaganda, and their own outpourings turn up in Arab press and broadcasts. The basic hope is that, by breeding hatred and suspicion of the Jews, outraged public opinion might force Congress to stop official support for Israel. With a little additional shove, Congress might even be persuaded to legislate against support for Israel from Jewish organizations....The Atlanta Temple bombing, however, triggered a series of shocks.... thanks to a story carried exclusively in THE NEWS, the link between the Arabs and the hate-mongers held responsible for the blast suddenly emerged....At the New York information office maintained by the Arab League, but largely dominated by NASSER, at the UAR delegation to the United Nations and at the UAR embassy in Washington, a firm front was maintained against 'these undesirable elements.' The order had gone out: 'Deny, deny, deny.' The hate-mongers I sought out have been less discreet....Even the Egyptians are apt to break down under stress. During a long talk one night in Washington with an official of the UAR embassy, I was repeatedly assured that not only would no one from his government have dealings with 'these scum,' they would kick them out bodily if they dared to cross the embassy threshold. But finally he raised his hands shoulder high in extreme exasperation and snarled: 'What can we do if these people want to help tell our story? Is that our fault? You know as well as I do that the Jews control your so-called free press here. Only the Zionists voices are heard.' He might have been quoting straight from an American hate sheet, or from Cairo Radio."

In the second article of the series BURK stated (in part) that after the Atlanta, Georgia temple bombing on October 12, 1958, Cairo Radio, "which is under the personal supervision of...NASSER," announced that: "It is reported from the United States that unknown persons have destroyed a synagogue in the city of Atlanta. It is further reported that publications throughout the Southern states are carrying hostile articles against the Jewish community." Pointing out that such publications could only have been "those put out by America's neo-fascist groups whose activities identify them daily more closely as a NASSER fifth column," BURK then mentioned that "such hate sheets as...and 'The Cross and Flag' put out in Los Angeles by GERALD L. K. SMITH, print a routine combination of pro-NASSER and anti-Jewish propaganda...(which) always flood into the areas afflicted by racial incidents and violence." Further on the article states: "In their anxiety to be all-embracing, to reach the hearthstones of American families of different tastes and viewpoints, the raciest periodicals adopt a variety of fronts. From California, GERALD L. K. SMITH offers the Christian approach... ROBERT H. WILLIAMS, who calls himself 'major' although the Army stripped him of the rank in 1950, pretended he was in U. S. intelligence during World War II for the benefit of those who like their hate diet served from the top-secret drawer. The House Committee on Un-American Activities, in a report on 'Neo-Fascist and Hate Groups' in December, 1954, called the monthly Intelligence Summary WILLIAMS put out from Santa Ana, Calif., 'a deception'. (WILLIAMS recently went out of the publishing business, probably temporary.) Far from being a high-powered innercircle man, the committee said, 'WILLIAMS' intelligence duty comprised less than a year as an administrative officer for the intelligence section of a bomber wing.' Thus, adds the report, 'he would have received no intelligence information dealing with the Communist conspiracy.' [redacted] a disciple of GERALD L. K. SMITH, thumps the ultra-nationalist, defend-America tub from California."

In the third article of the series, BURK stated (in part): "Soon after the Atlanta Temple bombing, Ambassador KAMIL ABDEL RAHIM, suave, ambitious head of the Arab Information Office, was recalled to Cairo 'for consultations.' Reliable reports say RAHIM, who inspired and founded Arab Information Office in early 1955, has been sacked....Back in the early '50's, when RAHIM was posted to Washington as Egyptian ambassador, he and his senior aids were flattered by the attentions they received from some of the racist fanatics. An identity of viewpoint was found on several issues, especially regarding the creation of the State of Israel and its support by Jews in the U.S....ROBERT WILLIAMS, who pretends to readers of his Intelligence Summary that he got the whole inside dope on the Communist conspiracy as an intelligence officer in World War II, was in touch with [redacted] of the Saudi UN delegation, offering pamphlets and mailing lists. Subscriptions were taken to such hate sheets as GERALD L. K. SMITH's The Cross and the Flag....RAHIM saw the potential in all these individuals and their outlets. Then, when he learned that the Arab Information Office officially sponsored by all the Arab League states, would have to register with the Justice Department as the agent of a foreign power, RAHIM quickly had himself transferred to the Yemen delegation to the UN to preserve his diplomatic immunity. The Foreign Agents Registration Act, 1938, As Amended, is specific. Any person or organization engaging in propaganda in behalf of a foreign power must send the Justice Department a half-yearly report listing its staff, activities, income and expenses. The Arab Information Office, which now has branches in Washington, Chicago, San Francisco and Ottawa, opened its New York headquarters in March, 1955." After hinting the possible untrustworthy returns by the Arab Information Centers to the Foreign Agents Registration Section of the United States Department of Justice, BURK added: "But the propaganda field is one in which money moves in mysterious ways. It is not even probable that the Arab Information Office is cooking its books. The penalties for any breach of the law are severe. But there is nothing to prevent the Egyptian embassy or

WJM:BLH

b7C

UN delegation, or those of the other Arab states involved, from footing bills in behalf of the AIO. Moving behind their shield of diplomatic immunity their finances are not controlled in any way by the U. S. authorities. Whatever monies pass to the American racist groups would certainly be handed over in cash. Ever here there is no difficulty in avoiding official scrutiny. In any free money market, like Lebanon or Switzerland, both handily on the route from Cairo to New York, dollars can be bought in any quantity without the transaction being recorded. Since diplomatic bags are sacrosanct, there is no way of telling how much cash, if any, is brought here in this way. Except for GERALD L. K. SMITH, none of the race groups has any special obligation under law to report either the amount of its income or its source. SMITH is in a separate category because his Christian National Crusade takes an active, if never welcome, part in political campaigns and elections. This obliges him to report his expenses and income to the Clerk of the House of Representatives under the Corrupt Practices Act. SMITH, whose Cross and the Flag carries even more than the usual quota of Arab propaganda, picks his favorite candidates in every Congressional and Presidential election and announces that his 'National Political Committee' will throw the full weight of its support behind the chosen ones....One of the penalties of denouncing SMITH and his fellow-racists in this manner, as their public tions show, is that the denouncer will in turn be denounced--as a pawn of the Jews, a hireling of the Jews, or very often, however fantastically, simply as a Jew." Further, suggesting that SMITH's reports to Congress under the Corrupt Practices Act as a "national political committee" list contributors who "seem to exist only on paper" BURK stated: "SMITH, on his own printed admissions, is virtually in constant contact with Egyptian officials and diplomats. In last January's issue of The Cross and the Flag, he boldly identifies one of his friends in an article titled: 'A Guest From Egypt.' On a visit to Washington, writes SMITH, 'I was called upon by a brilliant young man who is a citizen of Egypt. His name is [redacted] He is a journalist and a radio commentator.' [redacted] however, is not a journalist and radio commentator. He is a major in army intelligence, one of the platoon of intelligence agents NASSER spikes his foreign missions with. There is little point in listing them all. But intelligence officers sent to the U. S. on short visits, generally in the role of 'diplomatic couriers, are worthy of mention. So also is the fact that the Egyptian State Information Department in Cairo, publisher of most of the tracts distributed and reprinted by America's racists, is a branch of NASSER's security and intelligence network. Lt. Col [redacted] [redacted] who took over the department during my years in Cairo and who now is [redacted] for presidential affairs, had previously been in command of a group of agents whose function was to snoop on foreign correspondents, tap their telephones and steam open their mail. He is in charge of all press and radio activities. The NASSER agents who come here in sheep's clothing are naturally as free as any other visitor to travel around the U. S. and meet whom they please. That is one of the advantages of working in a free country, a fact Egyptians, especially, would appreciate."

In the fourth and fifth articles of the series, there appeared no other information implicating SMITH with Arab propaganda except probably the concluding statement in the fifth article that "the jigsaw pieces had clicked into place," that various persons including "SMITH" were tied into "a network of subversive hate. Each group feeding on the others like jungle animals on a diet of shady finance, propaganda gimmicks, and methods and ideas that reek of Red Moscow and Nazi Berlin." (In this passage "SMITH" could equally apply to GERALD L. K. SMITH and one CHARLES SMITH of the "New York Racist Forum" mentioned in the second article.)

I. GERALD L. K. SMITH;
CHRISTIAN NATIONALIST CRUSADE

[REDACTED] furnished information on January 31, 1957 that the Christian Nationalist Crusade (CNC) was organized in St. Louis, Missouri in 1947, and moved its headquarters to Glendale, California in 1953, where it continues to be located; that from the parent CNC, subsidiary organizations, including the Christian Nationalist Party (of America), have developed; that these organizations all reflect in their literature the imprint of their chief organizer and director, GERALD L. K. SMITH, whose basic argument has been that this nation, traditionally Christian, and racially segregated, is threatened by anti-Christian and racially "mongrelizing" forces such as communism and internationalism, all dominantly motivated by international Jewry which controls this country financially and politically; and that these organizations are not membership organizations, but represent followers who contribute to them or subscribe to their literature. Although GERALD L. K. SMITH and his close associates are not known to have appealed to illegal action, the tenor of their statements and program is intensely anti-Semitic, as indirectly indicated by the slogan of the Christian Nationalist Party, announced in 1950, which was: "One Faith - One Race - One Nation."

Issues of "The Cross and the Flag" (TCTF) dated November, 1954 and November, 1958, which identify that publication as the official monthly organ of the CNC, set forth on page 26 the same statement showing ownership, management and circulation of TCTF as required by law. A. GERALD L. K. SMITH;
ELNA M. SMITH

A United Press "Thumbnail Biography" of GERALD L. K. SMITH printed in the "Huntington Park Signal", November 15, 1948, states: "GERALD L. K. SMITH went back to Viroqua, Wisc., Aug. 18, 1946, as a 'favorite son.' An estimated 24,000 persons heard 'the boy orator' at his oratorical best in a Viroqua centennial address he was chosen especially to deliver. [redacted] said of SMITH in the Baltimore Sun in 1936 that he was the 'gustiest and goriest, the loudest and lustiest, the deadliest and damndest orator ever heard on this or any other earth.' As a supporter of the late Sen. HUEY P. LONG--he was with LONG when the Louisiana 'Kingfish' was shot--and later as the leader of numerous anti-New Deal, anti-Communist organizations, SMITH claimed to have spoken to more human beings in person than any living American. SMITH was born at Viroqua Feb. 27, 1898. Before he moved to Shreveport, La., in 1929 to become pastor of the Kingshighway Christian Church, SMITH completed his high school education in three Wisconsin schools. He attended Valparaiso and Butler Universities in Indiana, but returned to his native Wisconsin to serve several small churches as a young, unmarried preacher. SMITH also preached in several small churches in Illinois. But it was in Louisiana that he found himself. SMITH joined hands with LONG in 1933. He said he did it because he believed the Louisiana dictator was the most effective weapon against the late FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT. From those days right on through experiences with [redacted] and [redacted] and into the troubles he found in organizations of his own, SMITH stood on the Bible, wrapped himself in the flag--and orated. SMITH started his own organization in 1938 under the name of the 'Committee of One Million.' He didn't stop at the first million, however, but went on to recruit an estimated 3,000,000 followers. During his many years before the public, demonstrations were often rowdy. SMITH's most widely-publicized battles came when he was an 'America First' speaker. In those bitter days, he was often kicked out, chased off, and otherwise hampered in his oratory. SMITH married Miss ELNA SORENSON in 1918. One son, [redacted] was wounded four times in World War II."

[redacted] employee of the Internal Revenue Bureau, St. Louis, Missouri, furnished information to the St. Louis Office in May, 1954 that according to [redacted] of TCTF, GERALD L. K. SMITH was residing at that time at 3695 Shannon Road, Los Angeles, California.

TCTF dated November, 1949 contains a photograph of [redacted] on page 20, beneath which it is stated that she: "Is the [redacted] of GERALD L. K. SMITH. She is an associate editor of the 'Washington Letter' and is on the editorial staff of TCTF. She has lived and traveled with Mr. and Mrs. SMITH for six years. No person in the organization is more familiar with all phases of detail having to do with the Crusade than [redacted]. is in no sense commercial. No one believes in and stands for the high principle of the Crusade more than does she."

C. OPAL M. TANNER (WHITE)

TCTF dated October, 1948, contains a photograph of OPAL TANNER on page 23, beneath which she is identified as: "Member of the editorial staff of TCTF, former executive secretary of United Farmers of America. Until his death, the right-hand helper of the late and much respected CARL H. MOTE, editor of 'America Preferred.'" Beside this photograph, as beside those of other "leading nationalists" who spoke at the 1948 Christian Nationalist Convention, Miss TANNER is quoted as having stated: "It is with deep feeling that I recall having attended the first Nationalist Convention in 1944 not only as a delegate but as the Secretary of the Chairman of that Convention, Mr. CARL H. MOTE. Mr. MOTE realized that both 'old' political parties were completely controlled by the same gang of Internationalists. I feel confident in saying that if Mr. MOTE were present as a delegate to this Christian Nationalist Convention he would bring to his fellow delegates the same challenge that he brought to the America First Convention in 1944 when he said: 'Fellow Americans, the times are rotten ripe for change. The times are overripe for a new political party which will say what it means and mean what it says. Let us go forth to battle--to battle for our common country and for the God of our Fathers.'"

TCTF dated November, 1949, contains a photograph of OPAL M. TANNER on page 21, beneath which it is stated that she: 'presented the address in the dedication of the Mote Memorial Building. D. CHARLES F. ROBERTSON

As of 1954, [ ] furnished information that CHARLES F. ROBERTSON is the son of Mrs. BRITTA N. ROBERTSON, owner of the B. N. Robertson Publishing Company, 591-93 Glendale Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, in the operation of which he and his mother are active. He is a minister. Until the past few years his participation in GERALD L. K. SMITH's meetings has been mostly limited to giving the invocation. However, since becoming editor of TCTF, his participation has been commercial as well as ideologically sympathetic.

E. DR. WESLEY A. SWIFT

As of 1954, [ ] furnished information that Dr. WESLEY A. SWIFT is originally from New Jersey. He attended Columbia University and later post graduate courses at Harvard University. After a ministerial career he became active in the Ku Klux Klan and early in the World War II period was equivalent to the Ku Klux Klan's state organizer in California, which position he held until the Klan's dissolution about 1948. Over a period of years he and GERALD L. K. SMITH have shared the platform of one another's meetings, and until he recently accepted the position of legislative representative for the CNC he had no official connection with the CNC and its related organizations.

TCTF dated March, 1953 contains an article by Dr. WESLEY SWIFT on page 25 which is prefaced by an editorial note which states that: "Outstanding clergyman of Lancaster, California, specializes in scriptural interpretation. Dr. SWIFT is chairman of the California Anti-Communist League. He has been a pioneer in the battle against Communism, New Dealism and all other forms of Marxism. He was at San Francisco when the United Nations Charter was approved and has been a consistent foe of treasonable implications from that day to this."

The "California Jewish Voice" newspaper, a weekly newspaper published in Los Angeles, California, which reports mainly information of interest to the Jewish community in the Los Angeles area, contains an article on page 5 of its issue dated May 29, 1953, entitled "A Hate-Pamphleteer Dedicates His Commodity to Rival Dispensers." This article states, in part:

[redacted] is a young hero-worshipper studying to become a hero. [redacted] current idols are of a peculiar stipe for an American not quite 33 years old, a veteran of World War II and a former student at the University of Southern California. They include:

"The magnificent GERALD L. K. SMITH, funder and leader of the Christian Nationalist Movement . . . .

[redacted] career as a professional anti-Semite began in 1950 while he was still a student at the University of Southern California. There he distributed anti-Semitic leaflets which won high praise from WESLEY SWIFT, of Ku Klux Klan fame, who for a while made [redacted] his protege.

"After publication of the two Treason pamphlets ("Atom Treason" and "Hollywood Treason"), [redacted] came up with a new anti-Semitic 'expose,' a 96-page booklet, Behind Communism, which he published in the summer of 1952. This has been sold around the country by the bigoted faithful for a dollar a copy. It, too, stresses, the Jewish-Zionist-Communist equation.

"An ambitions, striving man, [redacted] decided to form his own 'patriotic' movement in September 1952 by sending out invitations for a meeting of his 'great new organization' aimed at combatting the 'Jew Marxist' program of world conquest. The invitation appeared on the reverse side of a 'Buy Gentile' flyer which he had been distributing in the Los Angeles area.

"The meeting was a dud. About 200 people appeared at the Embassy Hall to hear [redacted] charge that the nation's ills were attributable to 'immigrant Jew-Communists,' that 'Jew agitators' were exploiting the American Negro. Very little money was collected and the organization -- called The New Confederates -- died in its infancy.

[ ] has other irons in the fire. One of them is his 'fortnightly' publication, The American Nationalist, started in December 1952. Its content is similar to that of many other anti-Semitic publications. . . .

"But [ ] printed material has one distinction. Unlike most professional bigots, [ ] has the advantage of a college education. He may even have studied journalism. His products are technically better, more polished than most. He makes judicious use of color, of two-page layouts, for maximum reader appeal. His Treason pamphlets--vicious and full of distortions--are readable and physically attractive. . . ."

The "American Nationalist" (AN) consistently identifies itself as a four-page publication of The American Nationalist, Post Office Box 301, Inglewood, California, [ ]

[ ] furnished information on October 22, 1958 that [ ] has been investigated by the Postal Inspectors on four or five different occasions in connection with his four-page "The American Nationalist" and miscellaneous anti-Semitic and anti-Negro leaflets, replete with lurid photographs, but has never been found to have misused the mails, having never advocated the use of violence in his literature. He said that [ ] frequently visits the Post Office to deposit batches of his literature in the mails, destined to addressees locally and in the Southern States. He added that the AN is not a membership organization, conducts no meetings, and is solely operated by [ ] for the purpose of selling his literature and seeking donations, through these means "earning" a living for himself and his wife. [redacted] furnished information on March 9, 1959 that ROBERT H. The book entitled "Cross-Currents" by ARNOLD FORSTER and BENJAMIN R. EPSTEIN, copyrighted 1956 by "The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith," published by Doubleday & Company, Inc., Garden City, New York, which states in the authors' acknowledgment that "Only after reading this book from cover to cover can one truly understand the debt its authors owe to the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. The work is based upon the files of an agency composed of many men and women whose actual memoranda make up page after page of this document. . . ." and which contains a two-page forward by [REDACTED] of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, contains various passages pertinent to the subject of this investigation, which are as follows:

"November 20, 1954

"AF to BRE (ARNOLD FORSTER to BENJAMIN R. EPSTEIN):

"KAMIL ABDUL RAHIM, Egypt's former ambassador to the United States, returned to this country this morning, this time to assume the duties of executive director of the long-planned Arab League propaganda office in the United States.

"November 22, 1954

"Research to AF:

"RAHIM made some interesting, off-the-record comments about American Jews to friends the day he arrived. If the Arabs in the United States were to minimize their anti-Semitic agitation, said RAHIM, many American Jews might then lose interest in Zionism and Israel. But, added RAHIM, this was not the solution; there is a better answer. Most Americans do not distinguish between Zionists and Jews. This, he added, is 'something we have to exploit carefully.' Understanding American public opinion as well as he does, RAHIM concluded, it won't be very difficult--although delicate.

'November 23, 1954

"Library to BRE:

"One of the professional agitators with whom the newly arrived RAHIM has been in touch, at least through intermediaries, is GERALD SMITH.

"In 1952, SMITH sent out a number of letters to prominent Arabs concerning various aspects of the 'Jewish problem.' Among those to whom he wrote was KAMIL ABDUL RAHIM, ambassador from Egypt at the time, and when RAHIM's representative, Colonel [redacted] attended the 1952 Republican Convention in Chicago, he had an hour's conversation with the Christian Nationalist leader.

"In his report to [redacted] indicated that he had been very favorably impressed by SMITH, whom he characterized as one of the principal fighters against Zionism and Jewish influence in the United States. Always the salesman, SMITH boasted to [redacted] of the 'wonderful cooperation' he had been receiving from various representatives of Syrian-Lebanese American clubs. Believe it or not, SMITH promised [redacted] that he would exert great influence to see that the platforms of both major parties pay respect to the national aspirations of the Arab states. For a discredited rabble-rouser like SMITH to palm off successfully such a patently phony promise, [redacted] must be a man who is quite ignorant of the American scene.

"But apparently SMITH has a way with the Arabs. Back in January 1953, [redacted] Egypt's permanent representative to the United Nations, ordered SMITH's pamphlets for his legation and found The Cross and the Flag so stimulating that he purchased a hundred subscriptions and expressed an interest in personally meeting its editor, DON LOHBECK.

"It is interesting, also, to note that the Saudi Arabian delegation, subscribing to ten copies of The Cross and the Flag at a subscription rate of $2.00 each, sent SMITH a $120 check for the purchase; the $100 gratuity obviously reflected Saudi Arabian gratitude.

SMITH must really have put his best foot forward in Arab circles. Our files also show that back in October 1951 he was the subject of extended comment during a meeting at the home of [redacted] permanent Egyptian representative to the United Nations. Six very top official representatives from the Arab world attended, including the Iraqi, Syrian, and Saudi Arabian representatives to the UN, and [redacted] Lebanese ambassador. The Iraqi delegate, [redacted] was holding forth. Here is the substance of his remarks:

"My brothers, my activities last week were concentrated mainly on reports from Iraqi students in American universities. I have given them the task of carrying on an intensive agitation against the gangsters of Tel Aviv. I received eighteen letters from my correspondents in which they reported distributing a considerable number of pamphlets and prospectuses in favor of the Arab cause at universities in Michigan, Massachusetts, California, Washington and at Syracuse and Philadelphia. In these universities my correspondents work quietly and secretly so that Jewish students do not learn about their activities or report about them to their espionage agencies. I sent my correspondents 1800 copies of a pamphlet which I received from my very good friend GERALD SMITH. The sum of it was that the cause of the Arabs is our cause; that we must try to understand it; that we must try to fight for it and learn about it day and night; that we should understand that the cause that the Arab world defends is real anti-communist democracy, and that the Jews are the inventors of communism and are its largest supporters; that we must study the Arab world and understand it; that the Arab world is a world founded by honest people, sincere, frank, and cherishing democracy. I believe that such a pamphlet will touch the hearts of young Americans. Last week I also succeeded in obtaining from my government an appropriation of $2000 which I will spend exclusively to finance our friends organizing a number of meetings. . .

"An Arab League plan, nursed for five years, to organize a major, centrally directed, opinion-molding apparatus in the United States, becomes a reality with the opening by the League of its propaganda center at 445 Park Avenue in New York City.

"According to the current plan, this will be the main coordinating point for nationwide dissemination of pro-Arab, anti-Israel, and anti-Semitic propaganda; and here various activities will originate to rouse public feeling against Zionist and the 'all-pervading Jewish influence' on American opinion.

"To attain these ends, representatives of the Arab Center will seek the aid of the nation's well-known professional anti-Semites, such as GERALD L. K. SMITH, . . . ROBERT H. WILLIAMS, [redacted] . . . and others.

[redacted] Arab League representative in New York, in a comprehensive report submitted last August to his superiors in the Middle East, outlined the suggestions and offers of assistance he has already received from . . . [redacted] and WILLIAMS. On the question of how and under what circumstances the Arab Center could proceed to work with these people without provoking accusations of anti-Semitism, [redacted] strongly advised 'steady' contact, carried out in secrecy, so as not to hinder or 'deeply impair' the work of the new Center.

"Outlining the cooperation the new Arab office could expect from these men, [redacted] said his conclusions were based upon talks he himself had with them; . . . with SMITH . . . some time later. (after last July).

"[redacted] suggested in his report that to rule these men out of the Arab propaganda effort, as recommended by friends in the American Friends of the Middle East, would be unrealistic, because the Arab Center's mission with regard to Jews is identical with that of the anti-Semites." "Our library has just dropped on this desk the current issue of The Cross and the Flag containing a malicious piece entitled: 'The New Crucifixion in Palestine.' SMITH prefaces his very detailed story with an admission that it is actually based on a memorandum which came to him 'from Jerusalem.' Our files, however, indicate that SMITH's admission is somewhat of an understatement. This is what we mean:

"Some months ago, SMITH met with [redacted] in Washington about the possibility of publishing [redacted] propaganda material in his magazine for a fee. The cost would be on a 'per line' basis as though it were advertising matter. [redacted] agreed; but since the cost was high, $10 a line, he has been careful about the quantity forwarded to SMITH. By [redacted] own admission, there is only one story in the current issue of The Cross and the Flag submitted by him.

"In all of SMITH's distortions about alleged desecration of Christian holy places he finds no room to report the appreciation expressed by leaders of the Christian communities to the government of Israel for having safeguarded their property and for making prompt repairs to damage which occurred during the course of fighting. Such statements are available by the Latin Patriarch in Jerusalem, the Greek Orthodox Patriarchate and the Greek consul general in Jerusalem, the Greek Catholic archbishops of Galilee, the special delegate of the Lutheran World Federation, and many others.

"And, of course, SMITH has maintained a very careful silence about the failure of the Arabs to show the same consideration for Jewish religious property in the Old City of Jerusalem. Twenty-seven synagogues were razed to the ground. The historic cemetery on the Mount of Olives where Jews had been laid to rest for generations was sacrilegiously plowed up and the headstones reduced to dust.

"When we first learned of the GERALD SMITH-[ ] arrangement, we asked our Library to run through recent issues of The Cross and the Flag and mark off the pro-Arab material. Of course we do not know whether the following two items are the result of the SMITH-[ ] arrangement, but their substance fascinates us:

"In the August 1954 issue we find the following:

"We (GERALD SMITH) were received by the Ambassador from Egypt and his staff. They are the ones who represent the new government of Egypt in the United Nations. There are Jews in Egypt, but the Jews are not running Egypt. It is the intention of the internationalist clique, directed by Jewish and British politicians, to starve Egypt out by denying her the proper world trade facilities. The trick is to force her to trade with Russia, if possible, so that propaganda can be put out in the U.S. that Egypt is pro-Russian. Then the American people will be taught by the Jews to hate Egypt thus exploiting the American antipathy for Communism. . . . Egypt refuses to recognize the Jew-Palestine Government on the grounds that it is an invasion. The Ambassador, whose name is [ ] is a Moslem. . .

"In his June 1953 issue, SMITH's 'Letter No. 6,' addressed 'Dearest Mother,' reads in part as follows:

"One of the most outspoken delegations concerning the world situation is the delegation representing Lebanon, which is one of the Arab states. We interviewed this delegation and confirmed many important and sensational facts which we already knew. Jew-Zionists captured Palestine with the help of England and the United States, driving a million Arabs out of their homes and their places of business to suffer and die in the desert. Many of these people were refined and cultured people living in lovely homes. The Jews not only came in and stole their homes and their farms, but they froze the bank accounts, looted their safety deposit boxes, stole their cattle, swine and orange groves,

WJM:bcl

using the prestige and power of the United States and Western governments to support their lootings. . . .

"If SMITH's allegations seem vaguely familiar to you, there is good reason for it. You have read these statements many times before in Arab propaganda, the difference being that for the most part Arab literature uses less blunt language than SMITH. But I suppose SMITH feels impelled to rewrite all his source material; he has earned the right to consider his style imimitable, after all the years he has spent on it." (Pp. 351-353).

"January 31, 1955

"Library to Research

"An examination of recent issues of SMITH's The Cross and the Flag against propaganda emanating from the Arab Middle East shows that he has echoed a very large part of it, viz., editorials the 'Israeli Invasion of Palestine' combined with pleas for Arab refugees and charges of church desecration by Jews; articles accusing Israel of peddling opium; stores accusing the Jews of using the United Nations to create war upon the Arabs; items claiming that the Jews want peace with the Kremlin but war with the Arabs; editorials in behalf of the Arabs and endorsing such booklets as The Palestine Refugees, etc., etc.

"Most of these items in SMITH's magazine appeared previously in substantially the same form in Arab literature, radio broadcasts, or official releases. Those that SMITH thought of first appeared later in Arab propaganda." (P. 355).

"The answer as to why there is such a deadly parallel between the propaganda of official Arab representatives in the United States and local American anti-Semites lies in the close behind-the-scenes cooperation between the two groups. "These Americans can be divided into two categories. The first consist of decent and honest Americans who do not know enough about the Jewish plot in Palestine and who could be well influenced. They are not aggressive but honest. They will not help us in any 'big way,' but their influence on the US public opinion is steady and important. They include Church people, some relief organizations, and others. The second category consists of what the Jews call anti-Semites. I have seen some of them and although I cannot say the same thing of all of them, there are some who can do a lot of things to our cause. I have met people like . . . . GERALD SMITH, a strong anti-Zionist with a tremendous following (who helped us in his publications by some articles we have sent him), . . . . Our contacts with them have been careful to avoid accusations by strong Jewish organizations, like the Anti-Defamation League (which is called here the Gestapo of the Jews). But we remain always on our defensive to prevent wrong interpretations of our actions." (P. 356).

He told me that the very day they were called on by a representative of the Russian Government agreeing to furnish wheat and other materials to Egypt, the Government of Nasser sentenced numerous high officials in the Communist Party to long prison terms. [redacted] insists that the Arab world is afraid of one monster; namely, Jewish aggression, Israeli invasion, Jewish imperial control. They are conscious of the hazards of Communism and they hope and pray that the United States will give Egypt the kind of cooperation and support which will prevent her from being pushed into the arms of Soviet Russia. [redacted] says, however, that if the United States continues to tie up Egyptian money and continues to refuse to deliver wheat and foodstuffs to Egypt and continues to arm and furnish money to Israel, which will be used eventually to invade Egypt, Egypt then will be forced to turn wherever she can turn and regardless of the risk involved for allies necessary to fight off the threatened invader. . . ."

"Some were free to give out information, others were very secretive, others manifested a bewildered attitude concerning world affairs in general. Representatives to the United Nations are divided into blocs. Each Bloc is under the influence, control and leadership of a 'bell wether'. . . ."

(B) "I visited at length with two very wise and important men. These men are no part of the United Nations. (C) "Opinion from Egypt: I conferred in Washington with a prominent citizen of Egypt. He is an editor and radio commentator. He insists that there is no Communism in Egypt with the legal approval of the government. Notorious Communists were sentenced to prison at the very time that Egypt was visited by Russian personalities. My informer insists that the Arabs fear more than anything else the aggressive designs of the Zionist Jews. They know that Jews are coming out of Russia and Poland at the rate of 7,000 per week. They know that Israel is expecting to bring in between two and three million more Jews within the next few years. They know that in order to handle these new Jews, the Zionists will need more territory, and they are hoping to get this territory by invading Egypt and Jordan and Syria. "Communism in Israel: The Arab Information Center, with headquarters in New York City, is anxious for the world to know the facts concerning Communism in the Middle East. A booklet written by one Fayez A. Sayegh, Ph.D., bears the title 'Communism in Israel.' The introduction to this book bring out a summary of significant facts which every alert American should know. "The current issue of [redacted] monthly newsletter, 'The American Nationalist', includes this very significant item: 'If you read Arabic you will be interested to learn that an Arabic translation of our book, "Behind Communism", is now available from the Farajalla Press, Box 1012, Beirut, Lebanon.'

"It means that for the second time, at least, this young professional anti-Jewish agitator has worked a deal for himself with the Arabs. The November 1953 issue of his slick-sheet publication featured a piece on the Kibya incident, purporting to show how 'the parasitic state of Israel added another murderous chapter to its already blood-spattered record....' In January, [redacted] got his reward for the article - money from Arab sources.

"The pay-off was for services rendered; the article had been drafted by [ ] of the Arab League, then shipped to [ ] for publication. With the check went an order for more copies of the [ ] publication, ten to twenty thousand, which the Arab League will underwrite.

"The Arabs cannot wriggle out of this one. A quick perusal of the [ ] newsletter reveals that it is one of the worst anti-Semitic rags in the United States. On a solid basis of co-operation with most of the older professional Jew-baiters, [ ] conceals nothing. . . .

[ ] apparently has still other deals pending with the Arabs at this very moment. Earlier this month he was invited on behalf of [ ] of the Arab League, to come East as a guest of the Arab League, all expenses covered, for a private conference. In extending the invitation it was explained to [ ] that no final commitments could be made to him via mail pending the arrival of the new [ ] of the Arab League propaganda office (Kamil Abdul Rahim) from the Middle East.

"October 29, 1954

"AF to BRE

"Now we understand why [ ] is preoccupied with rewriting for his magazine much of the Arab propaganda coming out of the Middle East. His stories include charges that Arabs suffer second-class citizenship in Israel; that Israel has been blackmailing Germany with demands for reparations; that all Jews give their first loyalty to Israel; that Jews are mistreating Arab refugees; that Israel's immigration laws are harsher than the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act; that Israel pursues an anti-Gentile policy more ruthless than Nazi Germany's Nuremberg laws; that Israel is an aggressor nation, a perpetrator of atrocities, a deadbeat on its obligations to Arab refugees, etc.,etc. . . ." "With reference to your letter dated April 11, we have the honor to call your attention: . . .

"I have the pleasure to enclose herewith 5 copies of a magazine which has a great influence on the American people and its name is 'American Nationalist'. You will be glad to learn that this letter was written after a close co-operation between [redacted] and your servant. A sum of $500 is required now to be able to continue the publication of articles of that type in these and other friendly magazines. . . .

"Jewish propaganda remains at its height here, and we still are in great need of a strong office to clarify the minds and we are waiting with great impatience for the arrival of Mr. Kamil Abdul Rahim and it is important to know before he arrives that the task is extremely difficult and that the Jews still control all

"Unlike legitimate publishers who pay for editorial content, the hate press often works in reverse, collecting for its propaganda. So it is with [ ] (see: 'Facts', Mar. 1953), the 33 year-old publisher of a slick, four-page, anti-Semitic fortnightly called The American Nationalist.

b7C

"In his Nov. 23, 1953 issue [ ] who operates out of Inglewood, Calif., featured a slanted, inflammatory piece on the Kibya incident to show how 'the parasitic state of Israel added another chapter to its already blood-spattered record . . .'. Last January he got his reward - a $500 check from the Arab League. Made payable to The American Nationalist, it was signed by [ ], former Egyptian consul general in New York who has since moved up to a new job as propaganda chief in Washington, with diplomatic rank of counsellor.

LA 105-6400
WJM:rjn

b6

"The payoff was for services rendered: the article had been written by [ ] of the Arab League, then shipped to Britton for publication. With the check came an order for more copies, 10- to 20,000, which the Arab League will underwrite.

[ ] plans more such 'publishing deals' with [ ] in the future."

"The American Nationalist", volume 3, number 39, dated November, 1955, contains an article on page 2, entitled, "Editor's Report", which states in part:

"Our attention was recently drawn to a smear article which appeared in Georgia's left-wing 'Macon Telegraph', and which was reprinted in the Southern Israelite and other Jewish newspapers. The article, which purported to be an 'expose' of the American Nationalist, complained that 'the Southern states presently are being blanketed' by our mailings. 'It is important', warned the 'Macon Telegraph', 'that Southerners receiving copies of this publication know its origin and its reputation'.

"There followed a twisted and distorted 'history' of the American Nationalist which was saved from being ludicrous only by the vicious intent behind it. The following paragraph will suffice as an example:

"'Early in December 1952', stated the 'Telegraph' article, 'the first issue of the American Nationalist was published. In January 1954 [ ] received a $500 reward from the Arab League for his reports on the Kibya incident which were printed in his paper. The article had been written by [ ] of the Arab League and sent to [ ] for publication.'

"Needless to say, there is not a word of truth in the allegation. But since the story seems to have received wide circulation in the South, we thought it best to set the record straight in the matter. The truth is that we never received $500 from the Arab League. We never received even $1.00 from them - for any purpose whatever. As for the story [ ] was supposed to have written for our paper: we don't even know anyone by that name. Most certainly neither he, the Arab League nor anyone else ever had an article published by us. We write our own material, and if we do say so ourselves, it is considerably more accurate than the stuff appearing in papers like the 'Macon Telegraph'."

WJM:rjn

III. ROBERT H. WILLIAMS

The book, "Cross-Currents", mentioned above, contains the following passages concerning ROBERT H. WILLIAMS:

"October 10, 1953

"Middle Eastern Correspondent to Research

"Several days ago Omar Haliq responded favorably to a proposition he received through the mails from Robert Williams. In September, Williams contacted the Arab League with an offer to prepare a 12-page pamphlet on various phases of the Israeli-Arab controversy, including a report on the alleged pro-Israel activities of the Anti-Defamation League and the American Jewish Committee. Williams offered to do the complete job, furnishing suitable names from his mailing list to aid distribution, for the 'bargain price' of $2000.

"[ ] asked Williams for an outline of the proposed brochure for submission to Cairo. [ ] hoped that the suggested project would be approved and he offered to assist Williams in its preparation in any way he could.

"But [ ] does not make the decisions; his approval alone is meaningless.

"October 11, 1953

"Library to Research

"This is to remind you that the tentative [ ]-Williams deal is not the first time Williams has tried to do business with the Arabs. In the spring of last year, before the political conventions, Williams got in touch with [ ], correspondent for the influential Cairo daily, 'Al Misri', and pointed out the danger to the Arab cause in a 'Zionist-supported' candidate receiving the nomination. Williams had, he said, a scheme to spike such a move which deserved the support of Arab newspapers and suggested getting together with [ ] to talk the matter over.

LA 105-6400
WJM:rjn

"Williams' strenuous efforts to sell his services to Arab representatives in the United States is a long-time thing. Read the following letter to [ ] from Williams after the latter sold the Syrian Minister a bill of goods:

"ROBERT H. WILLIAMS
P.O. Box 868
Santa Ana, California

"May 13, 1950

Al-Misri Bureau
221 West 10th Street
New York, N.Y.

"Dear [ ]:

"The Hon. Faiz El-Khourri, Minister for Syria, writes that he has talked with you about my unfinished manuscript 'A Gentile Looks at the Jewish Problem' and that your paper might possibly be interested in publishing the book in Arabic, when it is finished.

"I think I would be greatly interested in such a proposition.

"The book really is finished, but requires much revising and reducing. It now stands at something over 500 pages of double-spaced typed manuscript and should be reduced to not more than 300 pages, I should think. Furthermore, on the chapter dealing with the destruction of Rome and the two chapters dealing with the destruction of Russia, I must do some more research.

"I doubt that the book can be ready before fall.

LA 105-6400

WJM:rjn

"Meanwhile, it occurs to me that your paper might want to publish in Arabic one or both of the two booklets which I am sending you separately: 'The Anti-Defamation League and Its Use in the World Communist Offensive' and 'FEPC and the Minority Machine'.

"If your paper wants to publish them, in book or booklet form, I would be agreeable to the customary royalty arrangement. If, in addition to the booklets, or without publishing them as booklets, your paper should want to print them serially in its columns, then I would welcome a reasonable offer of remuneration.

"May I hear from you at your convenience?

"Sincerely,
Robert H. Williams
Major, MI-Res.

"PS - I believe I shall send both booklets herewith instead of separately." (pages 318-320).

(An allegation in "Cross-Currents" that ROBERT H. WILLIAMS had made "suggestions and offers of assistance" to [ ] Arab League representative in New York, has been quoted above under the subcaption "GERALD L. K. SMITH" in the passages beginning "December 27, 1954: Research to AF".)

[ ] furnished information on March 11, 1959, that a confidential source, believed to be reliable, had furnished information that [ ] on a letterhead of the UN Office of the Cairo newspaper "Al-Misri", from New York City on August 18, 1953, addressed to "Dear Major", who is thought to be ROBERT H. WILLIAMS (Major in the Military Intelligence Reserve), a letter BOUHAFI stated (in part) as follows: "I have communicated your letter and its enclosure to the editor of my newspaper 'Al-Misri'." He then assured his addressee of the large circulation of that paper and mentioned the general subject matters in which the publication would be interested and willing to pay for; such as, inside stories of "Jewish intrigue", and added: "I am sure that the League of the Arab states would be very much interested to get these data and even compensate for whatever expenses such an investigation might involve. I might even say that I am authorized to inform you of

ADMINISTRATIVE

The Bureau's attention is drawn to the fact that it is difficult to draw a distinction between anti-Zionist propaganda published by Arab governments and distributed in the United States and the conversion of this propaganda for use as anti-Semitic propaganda by hate groups in the United States.

Synopsis: Series of five articles appeared in "New York Daily News" 1/20-24/59, written by DAVID BURK and entitled, "Peddling Hate in America: Egypt's NASSER." BURK accuses Arabs for fomenting much of anti-Jewish acts perpetrated by hate groups in the United States by alleging anti-Jewish literature prepared by the Arabs has been given to Americans active in racist and hate campaigns for distribution. Articles further point out that some of these racists have been in contact with Arab officials and establishments in this country and some of their publications have contained pro-NASSER propaganda, the implication being that such propaganda was furnished by the Arabs. JAMES H. MADOLE
NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY
NATIONAL RENAISSANCE BULLETIN

The "New York Daily News" of January 20, 1959, in the above referred to articles by DAVID BURK states in part:

"The hatemongers I sought out have been less discreet. The connection with an established regime is too good for their egos to be hidden. Men like James H. Madole, the Basilisk-eyed, stiff jointed leader of Manhattan's National Renaissance Party, boasted of 'meeting regularly with the Arabs.'"

In the "New York Daily News" of January 21, 1959, in the above referred to articles by DAVID BURK states in part:

"Manhattan's James H. Madole, one of the several petty fuehrers who strut around the U.S. produced an ingenious sidestep. At a meeting held in the Nola Studios above Steinway Hall, 113 W. 57th St., he charged (and repeated in a leaflet priced at a modest 25¢ a copy) that Atlanta's Jews had blown up their own synagogue.

"Titled 'The Untold Facts Behind the Synagogue Bombing' Madole said it 'had set off a chain reaction from President Eisenhower ---- to five unemployed nationalists who were being legally crucified --- to appease the Jewish vote. An unprecedented wave of publicity has swept the entire United States calling for the suppression of all hate literature.'

"By 'hate literature' Madole explained, he means 'any publication which has the temerity to criticize the un-American activities of the Jew and his multimillion-dollar propaganda agencies'.

"Let us, Madole continued, 'analyze the facts. Which group has gained more from the veritable epidemic of bombings and dynamitings culminating in the Atlanta explosion?'

TGS:bam

NY 105-34295

"The dynamitings in Clinton, Nashville, Jacksonville, Miami and other Southern cities, Madole said, have been used by the Jewish press 'to rally Catholics and Protestant clergy behind the fundamentally Jewish - sponsored drive for complete racial integration'.

"Moreover he added, 'reports of bomb threats and the wave of violence, bombings and 'hate literature' around the country brought pledges of increased contributions to support the American-Jewish Committee and the 'B'nai B'rith'.

"Quite obviously said Madole who stares as he talks, with wide eyes that never flicker and seem to be focused on outer space, 'the Jews were the only group to gain, both financially and economically, from the dynamitings. No sane American nationalist could expect anything but the interventions of federal authorities, a tidal wave of investigations, and unfavorable publicity in the national press'.

"However, laments the, wild eyed fuehrer, since Atlanta's Mayor WILLIAM B. HARTSFIELD, Police Chief HERBERT JENKINS and Prosecutor PAUL WEBB 'are part of the Jewish fifth column in the Deep South----political traitors kept in power by the wealthy Jewish community----to open the door to racial integration who can expect justice.

"Another Madole leaflet lashes out at F.B.I. Chief J. Edgar Hoover's book on Communism in the U.S., 'Masters of Deceit'. ('One of the top propaganda lines of the hate groups, alongside their plugging of the Nasser cause, is one developed by Goebbels in the 30s. Communism, goes the slogan backed up by a grab bag of fractured history, sociology and other sciences, is Jewish').

NY 105-34293

TGS:bam
(10)

"For ~~defining this~~ charge in his book as 'one of the most malicious myths that has developed in the United States', Hoover is fingered by Madole as 'American's foremost master of deceit' who must be 'planning to retire soon and wants to assure either a good job in the business world or a nice fat ADL (Anti-Defamation League) check'.

"Madole, who periodically drops into burlesque-stage Jewish accents to ~~wring a chuckle~~ from his small audiences (of the 50 present Nov: 14, Madole claimed 'many are Jews, secret agents and reporters') then swung into his Arab routine.

"We must get together with the Arabs', he asserted. 'We have a common cause. We are anti-Jew. Nasser has sworn to get rid of all Egypt's Jews but his policy hasn't succeeded yet. There are still 25,000 of them there'.

"But it's only a matter of time. I see some of these Arabs regularly and you can take that as a fact.

"If anyone wanted fuller information on that subject, he said, there were some leaflets on the table at the back of the hall. There were indded. Leaflets titled, 'Murder, Rape and Devastation' (by Israel in Gaza), 'The story of Zionist Espionage in Egypt', 'GAMAL ABBUL NASSER', 'GAZA under the Zionist Heel', and others.

"They outnumbered the National Renaissance Party's own literature heavily. Each was rubber stamped 'National Renaissance Party, 10 W. 90th St., New York 24, NY'. on one side and: 'Egyptian State Information Dept., 22 Soleman Street, Cairo on the other.

TGS:bam
(11)

NY 105-34295

"The Egyptian Embassy in Washington and the Egyptian UN delegation headquarters and Arab Information Office in New York, all expressed surprise that their publications fall into such hands.

"Perhaps, suggested one helpful employee at the Arab Information Office, 120 E. 56th St., 'they find one or two and then have them copied here.'

"The official, an Egyptian like all the top men in this office which purports to represent the nine-nation Arab League, thought the same answer might apply to Nasser boasts appearing in other racist publications around the country.-----

"Madole offers a combination that includes atheism and a party program that is 'for a dictatorship in place of Jewish-controlled democracy' and will 'solve all problems - social, economic, labor and juvenile delinquency.' 'Our slogan,' he says, 'is one nation, one race, one leader.'"

The "New York Daily News" of January 23, 1959 in the above referred to articles by DAVID BURK states in part:

"[redacted] expressed amazement when specific instances of Nasser's men consorting with racists were mentioned. Such as the time when [redacted] press officer, of the Egyptian U.N. delegation, addressed one of New York fuehrer James Madole's muck-raking meetings.

"Perhaps said Selim hopefully, 'Hassan didn't know who Madole was.'

"He conceded that the office has a copy of the Attorney General's list of subversive, fascist groups, which includes both Madole and his National Renaissance Party. He also conceded that it behooves a diplomat to make inquiries before accepting invitations to address meetings.

"[redacted] himself, when nailed on the subject during a recent television interview, at first denied that he had been present. When however, he was shown a photograph of himself sitting beside Madole on the rostrum, he went through the rest of the program like a man with violent stomach cramps."

On April 21, 1958, a confidential source stated that the NRP is an anti-Semitic, anti-Negro, neo-Fascist organization with activities generally confined to the New York City area. It was founded in 1949 by JAMES H. MADOLE, who is in complete control of the Party. The Party's main function is the distribution of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" on a monthly basis and distribution of pro-Arab literature obtained from official Arab establishments in New York City.

The Un-American Activities Committee of the United States House of Representatives, in a preliminary report dated December 17, 1954, stated the "National Renaissance Party activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American."

This informant states that so far as he knows the Iraqi Government does not encourage MADOLE's distribution of literature and <sup>that he</sup> has no information indicating that any other individuals are acting as agents of the Iraqi Consulate or the Iraqi Delegation to the UN in distributing any "hate literature" or propaganda. This informant explained that MADOLE has written a number of articles concerning Zionism and the State of Israel which articles he has voluntarily furnished to the Iraqi Consul General. In furnishing these articles, the informant stated that MADOLE has attempted to get the Iraqi Government to sponsor some of his research work, but the Iraqis have refused to do this, inasmuch as they have no regard or respect for MADOLE. The informant stated that anything which is mailed or given to the Iraqi Consulate by MADOLE is accepted, but that so far as is known, MADOLE has not been encouraged to furnish this information to representatives of the Iraqi Government. The informant recalled that in a few instances the Iraqis were interested in articles written by MADOLE, and had requested additional copies of this material from him. These additional copies were desired for the purpose of sending them to Iraq, but insofar as the informant knows, MADOLE was not paid for this material. however, that although the ADL has no proof, it would appear that the Egyptian Consulate (UAR) in New York City is supplying information of an anti-Jewish nature, which is subsequently being incorporated in the "National Renaissance Bulletin", which is in turn sold to the subscribers to this bulletin. [ ] also stated that the ADL has received information that pamphlets put out by the Egyptians (UAR) and undoubtedly given to the NRP are being stamped with the name and address of the NRP and are being sold to supporters of the latter organization. [ ] advised that he had absolutely no information that MADOLE was receiving any money from Egyptian (UAR), Iraqi or other foreign governments in connection with the activities of the NRP. [ ] pointed out that he has no definite information as to who specifically MADOLE is dealing with at the Egyptian Consulate (UAR) or the particular arrangements MADOLE has with the Egyptians (UAR) in this connection.

(U) During the interview, the question of MADOLE's association with the NRP came up, and among other things, MADOLE stated that he had visited the Syrian Consulate in New York City, where he had been given literature, and that the Syrians buy his literature for distribution in Syria and Egypt because they, as he, are anti-Jewish and nationalistic in nature.

[redacted] advised on January 17, 1958, that MADOLE had recently made the rounds of the Arab establishments in New York City and had obtained a quantity of literature which he rubber stamped with the name of the NRP and which presumably would be distributed through NRP channels. (C)

(U) [redacted] advised on March 8, 1958, MADOLE indicated that his new bulletin would be ready for mimeographing about March 5, 1958, and the title would be "Anti-Semitism Justified By History." MADOLE stated that the main theme of the article which stated the causes of anti-Semitism in the Near East had been written by the Arabs. MADOLE explained that the Arabs he had reference to were "The Egyptians, and everything clears through them." (C)

(U) On May 6, 1958, [redacted] advised that on May 1, 1958, MADOLE stated that he believed that the next issue of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" would be late and advised the reason for this<sup>was</sup> "The Arabs advised they want me to write an article for which my tentative title is 'Conditions in the USA'." added that this article requested by the Arabs is actually not for his bulletin but will be translated into Arabic and published in an Egyptian paper and probably in other publications. (c)

(U) On May 13, 1958, [ ] advised that MADOLE had indicated he had finished an article requested by the Arabs which had taken him three weeks to prepare and which contained 35 pages. He said it is a report on conditions in the United States relating to the Arab boycott of Jewish firms and he does not believe it will be printed, but is for the use of the Arabs. MADOLE indicated he listed firms that did business with Israel or in some way worked for Israel and firms that contributed to the United Jewish Appeal or other funds collecting money relating to Jewish affairs. MADOLE stated he had listed 400 such companies and that he did the major part of the work himself. He indicated he had received some help; however, he did not state where the information was obtained. MADOLE said he delivered this report to the Egyptian office and had stated that these Arabs are infantile in believing that there are good and bad Jews. (c)

(U) [redacted] advised on September 17, 1958, that MADOLE continues to have large quantities of Arab literature at his apartment and he states that he is very busy and needs nearly all of his time to work for the Arabs. This source indicated that it does not appear that MADOLE is in need of funds and MADOLE has advised that he is not going to devote his next "National Renaissance Bulletin" to segregation because the Arabs want him to do an article on West Germany and the Zionists. MADOLE indicated that he has to get this article out in a hurry and it will be entitled, "Germany, The Slave of Zionist Imperialism." The source also stated that MADOLE had recently obtained some Chinese literature which he stamped with the NRP stamp and is distributing it through NRP channels as he does with all Arab literature which he receives. 3. A pamphlet entitled, "Israel and the Arab States," by SYBIL EYRE CROW.

5. A booklet entitled, "Threats and Intimidations," compiled by the Egyptian Information Department, Cairo, Egypt.
6. A pamphlet entitled, "The Policy That Invited Soviet Russia to the Middle East," by IZZAT TANNOUS.

(U) MADOLE, during the interview, explained that he was distributing pro-Arab literature since he agrees with the Arab position in the Middle East. He stated that he and his organization are anti-Jewish and they feel they should distribute pro-Arab literature since both he and the Arabs are working in the same direction. MADOLE also made the statement that he was distributing literature for the Iraqi Government.

Source stated he last observed MADOLE at 900 Park Avenue, New York City, which houses the United Arab Republic Delegation to the UN, and the Consulate of the United Arab Republic, New York City, approximately one year ago. Source stated that to the best of his knowledge, MADOLE is not welcome at the United Arab Republic Delegation and no literature has been given to him for some time. Source stated that [ ] of the Information Office of the United Arab Republic Delegation was recalled to the United Arab Republic in the summer of 1958, because of the furor caused by [ ] denying on the television interview program, "Nightbeat" that he ever addressed a meeting of the NRP and the subsequent showing on the program of a photograph of [ ] addressing a meeting of the NRP. [On March 3, 1959, [ ] advised] that JAMES MADOLE has prepared the next issue of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" which will be captioned "Who Are the Real Hate Mongers"? MADOLE in this edition will comment that Jewish organizations are demanding a passage of legislation banning all publications which dare to oppose the activities of the Jews and he singles out Senator JACOB JAVITZ and Senator KENNETH KEATING whom he indicates "earn their living by wagging their tongues at Jewish fund raising devices for the State of Israel". MADALE indicates that Jewish organizations are demanding that "anti-Semitic political organizations like the National Renaissance Party must be either outlawed or crippled by legislation which would bar their literature from going through the mail." MADALE states that instead of demanding a study of the non-existent exchange between the National Renaissance Party and the Government of the United Arab Republic as recently claimed by DAVID BURK in the "New York Daily News" articles, he suggests a congressional study of methods by which a foreign state, the State of Israel, solicits hundreds of millions of tax deductible dollars each year to build up her war machine in the Middle East.

"MUST AMERICAN BOYS DIE IN PALESTINE?"

"American boys must not be used as cannon fodder to appease the Zionist aggressors in the Holy Land. Oceans of mothers' tears and innumerable empty chairs at family dinner tables remind us of the terrible price in blood and resources paid by the American people for involvement in futile world conflagrations like World War II and the Korean Epic. Traitorous politicians seeking to line their pockets with Zionist gold and votes by sacrificing the flower of American manhood on the battle fields of the Middle East must be repudiated and dealt with as traitors to the American Republic.

BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN
"FACT FOR FACT"

b6
b7C

The "New York Daily News" of January 21, 1959 in the above referred to articles by DAVID BURK states in part:

"Another of the breed, New York's BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN, who has been playing footsie with the Arabs since the middle 40's, puts out a turgid broadsheet crammed with a mosaic of history, past and present. He is a renegade Jew."

The "New York Daily News" of January 22, 1959 in the above referred to articles by DAVID BURK states in part:

"Back in the early '50's, when RAHIM was posted to Washington as Egyptian Ambassador he and his senior aids were flattered by the attentions they received from some of the racist fanatics. An identity of viewpoint was found on several issues, especially regarding the creation of the State of Israel and its support by Jews in the U.S.

"Gerald Winrod, who then edited a racist magazine called Defender lunched with RAHIM (KAMIL ABDEL RAHIM) at the embassy. Robert Williams who pretends to readers of his Intelligence Summary that he got the whole insiderdope on the Communist conspiracy as an intelligence officer of World War II, was in touch with [redacted] of the Saudi U. N. delegation offering phamplets and mailing lists.

NY 105-34293

The "New York Daily News" of January 23, 1959 in the above referred to articles by DAVID BURK states in part:

"What, I asked [redacted] about the racists who visit official Arab offices and join Arab diplomats in the delegates' lounge at the U.N.? The most prominent of these is Benjamin H. (for Harrison) Freedman, 68, retired toilet goods manufacturer and son of MORITZ and HANNAH KAUFMAN FREEDMAN, immigrants from 19th Century Hungary.

"Freedman, who once described himself in court as 'without religion, though I was born a Jew, practice Catholicism and belong to the Masons' has a 10-year record of anti-Semitism.-----

"Freedman's record came out in a New York court in 1948. He was a witness for the plaintiff when attorney [redacted] leading light of Freedman's League for Peace with Justice in Palestine, sued an anti-Nazi organization for libel for saying he had been 'long known in the halls of pro-fascist propaganda.'

"Under skilled cross-examination Freedman spent several days on the witness stand. The sum of his testimony proved of greater value to the defense than to [redacted]

"Copies of cables exchanged between Freedman and [redacted] former Mufti of Jerusalem who broadcast to the Arabs for Hitler during World War II, were produced in court. Freedman also admitted frequently visiting Arab friends in Washington and having spent $100,000 of his own money to advertise his cause.

NY 105-34293

"This last fact resulted in a glowing eulogy by the ex-mufti, printed in Cairo and titled: 'An American Jew Spends His Efforts and Riches in Protection of the Arabs. '

"The libel suit was thrown out of court and the judge described Freedman as an 'international meddler and propagandist.'

"When I called on Freedman at his sumptuous 960 Park Ave. apartment I learned that his views have not changed in the last 10 years. Before I was admitted, I had to prove my identity, declare that I was not a Jew and do not work for any investigative agency.

"The Zionists, Freedman assured me, 'drove me into the arms of men like Mc Ginley and Gerald L. K. Smith. I'd neither met nor heard of them before the Zionists started to smear me.'

"He scanned me piercingly through a pince-nez and said: 'I am thinking only of the good of the United States. I was born here you know. Thats why I believe we should recognize not only Red China, but also North Korea and East Germany, in the interests of the survival of the U.S. and the free world.'

"The U.S. he said, has only 6% of the total world population while Afro-Asia has 80%. By alienating Afro-Asia, the U.S. was destroying its commercial potential.

NY 105-34295

"Freedman puts out a sheet called Fact for Fact. _ It describes itself as 'An official publication of the Foundation for Advanced Research, a nonprofit membership foundation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware.' The foundation address is given as 505 Fifth Ave., but don't waste time looking it up in the directories. It isn't listed.

"Fact for Fact - 'only research reveals all the facts--- the whole truth' - offers the usual line about Communism being part of the Jewish conspiracy; the Jews not being Semites at all but descendants of a converted Asian tribe called the [redacted]; and Eisenhower, Dulles and everyone else who does anything the racists disapprove of being the tools of the Zionists.

b7C

"After Eisenhower signed the Middle East Doctrine in 1957, says Freedman, for example, 'every media of mass-communications in the U.S. owned and controlled by the Zionist hierarchy, the leading newspapers, the television and radio nationwide networks, the leading weekly magazines, the motion-picture newsreels and many other equally effective media in the United States also owned and controlled by the Zionist hierarchy, immediately commenced the most unjustified and unwarranted smear-campaign accusing Egypt and Syria of being countries 'controlled by international Communism.' The purpose was quite obvious.

[On February 18, 1959, [ ] advised that BENJAMIN H. Source stated that the publication "Fact For Fact", which has been published intermittently, has been published under the name of Foundation for Advanced Research Analysis.

The January 1957 issue of the publication "Fact For Fact" reflects that it is published by the Foundation for Advanced Research Analysis, 505 Fifth Avenue, New York City. This issue is a four page pamphlet, which consists entirely of one article authored by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN and entitled "Whose Blood Will Flow Next in Palestine Now Answered".

(U)

[On March 31, 1959, [ ] made available copies of the January and March, 1957 and June, 1958 issues of "Fact For Fact":

The January, 1957 issue carries the above-quoted caption "Whose Blood Will Flow Next in Palestine Now Answered". This edition also carries the following captions:

"President Eisenhower Seeks Consent of Congress For United States Armed Forces to Fight Middle East War to Protect Booty of Zionist's 1948 Armed Insurrection".

The first portion of the article is as follows:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NY 105-34293

"The United States Armed Forces will soon again be fighting and dying, this time on the battle-fields throughout the Middle East area, in the not too distant future, in another unnecessary and useless war, if President Eisenhower's Middle Eastern Security Resolution, as it is now called, is approved by both the houses of Congress, and signed by President Eisenhower, It thus becomes the law of the land, in the form in which President Eisenhower submitted it to the Congress, on January 5, 1950, as his Joint Resolution to Congress, H. J. Res. 117.

"On the basis of the facts which follow, those best qualified and most competent to judge the inevitable consequences of President Eisenhower's Middle Eastern Security Resolution, are of the unanimous opinion, that in its present form President Eisenhower's Middle Eastern Security Resolution will lead to war in the Middle East area, in the very near future, between the United States and the Arab Middle East Countries. The consequences must prove very disastrous.

"It is also the considered judgment and the unanimous opinion of those best qualified and most competent to judge, in the Administration in Washington, in the Congress, in the Pentagon, and among United Nations delegations, that a war of that character in the Middle East will inevitably precipitate the impending all-out and full-scale East-West World War. That evil consequence must be averted."

The March 1957 edition of "Fact For Fact" carries the following captions:

"Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine Invoking East-West 'Hot' World War"

"Non-Christian Asian-African 80% of World's Total Population Support Palestinian Arab Expellees

The story of this issue is authored by FREEDMAN.

The June 1958 edition of "Fact For Fact" carries the following captions:

"Hatemongers Smear Patriots Who Warn Nation of Defeat!
World War III Threatens Security and Sovereignty of Nation; Hope Fast Dwindling for United States Victory and Survival!

"Character-Assassination Sabotaging Nations' Defense!

"Unless the United States is able to regain and retain the respect and regard of the peoples of Asia and Africa before the outbreak of World War III our defeat appears inescapable. The unjustified and unprovoked complicity of this nation in the Zionist revolution in Palestine in 1948 cost the United States as allies in World War III the 500,000,000 Moslems and 500,000,000 of other religious faiths in Asia and Africa. That unwarranted complicity will cost this nation access to the unlimited vast natural resources of Asia and Africa more vital to this nation's own defenses in World War III than now realized. That unwarranted complicity furthermore denies to this nation the use of strategic areas in Africa and Asia vital for the defenses of this continent in World War III. That unwarranted complicity surely opened a Pandora's box for the United States in Asia and Africa which it will be hard to shut.

Club. The article in essence, is FREEDMAN's answer to all of the original allegations/<sup>and</sup> subsequent investigations concerning his, FREEDMAN's, charges concerning the association of ANNA M. ROSENBERG with the John Reed Club.

On March 20, 1947, BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN, 300 Central Park West, New York City was interviewed by SA [redacted]. FREEDMAN stated that in January of 1946, he became interested in the Palestinian question and thereafter commenced a study of the involved/<sup>issues</sup> in order that he might be in a position to suggest proper solutions to the interested parties. He stated that it was most regretable that at the present time Arab and Jewish factions were engaged in acrimonious recriminations rather than attempting to amicably adjust and reconcile their conflicting viewpoints.

b7c

FREEDMAN stated that in his opinion there could be no permanent peace in Palestine unless Arabs and Jews themselves agreed on conditions and terms of immigration, settlement, etc. He related that to refer the matter to the United Nations (UN) or to engage in blockade running was merely postponing the inevitable conflict and he felt that the only solution at the present time was to call for a Jewish established conference to settle the whole Palestinian affair.

To obtain the different Arab and Jewish viewpoints regarding this matter, FREEDMAN conferred with [redacted] of the American Council for Judaism, 20 East 57th Street, New York City, and [redacted] of the Institute of Arab-American Affairs, New York City. He stated that [redacted] had convinced him of the sincerity of the Arabs desire for peace, but informed him that the Institute of Arab-American Affairs did not have sufficient funds to publicize their viewpoint in this matter.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

In consequence FREEDMAN related he defrayed the expense of an advertisement of the Institute of Arab-American Affairs which appeared in local Metropolitan newspapers in New York City on February 19, 1946. This advertisement was captioned as follows: "Arabs Want Peace in Palestine! So Do The Jews, But The Political Zionists Are Bent on Violence".

Subsequently FREEDMAN formulated "The League for Peace with Justice in Palestine, which was incorporated in the State of New York on May 9, 1946. The stated purposes of this organization were to "work for the preservation of the rights of all racial, religious and nationality groups in all the countries of the world and to render voluntary assistance in the protection of men and women in all parts of the world by collecting and disseminating factual information with respect to the suppression of minorities to direct special effort to the geographic area which includes Palestine in an effort to establish peace with justice for all inhabitants."

(U) During the course of this interview, FREEDMAN related that he had spent over $50,000 in advertisements in presenting his views through The League for Peace with Justice in Palestine. FREEDMAN also emphatically denied that he had at any time received any financial support or had been controlled or influenced by any Arab organization or persons interested in the Arab cause. He stated his entire actions were motivated by a desire to effect amicable Arab-Jewish relations and particularly to effect peace in the Holy Land through mutual discussion of peace and cooperation.

MERWIN K. HART
National Economic Council, Inc.
"Economic Council Letter"

The following information concerning MERWIN K. HART was obtained from a "clipping file" maintained by the "Utica (New York) Observer Dispatch":

HART was born on June 21, 1881; graduated from Harvard University in 1904, with an A.B. Degree. He was elected to the General Assembly of the State of New York for a two year term in 1906. He married CATHERINE MARGARET CROUSE of Utica, New York, in 1909; was admitted to the practice of law in 1911; served in the United States Army during World War I.

A review of the 1943 editions of the "New York State Economic Council", a pamphlet edited by MERWIN K. HART, reflects that the name of this publication has been changed to the "National Economic Council", with the address 350 Fifth Avenue, New York City (Empire State Building).

The October 1, 1957 issue (letter #416) of a pamphlet entitled "Economic Council Letter" contains the following information on the last page thereof:

"This Council Letter may be quoted in whole or part provided due credit is given to the National Economic Council, Inc., Empire State Building, New York 1, New York, and quotation is specified to be from 'Economic Council Letter' 416, October 1, 1957.

The October 1, 1957 issue of the "Economic Council Letter" contains a four page article entitled "Federal Tyranny in Arkansas". This article is concerned with the federalization of the Arkansas National Guard in September of 1957.

The October 15, 1957 issue of the "Economic Council Letter" carries a four page article entitled "Confidential to the Praesidium". This article carries a heading, "The winds of chance have blown into our hands what purports to be a Communist leader's confidential report to the Kremlin masters. We do not in any way vouch for its authenticity; but the acuteness of the author's observations and the accuracy of his deductions should be considered by every American".

The March 15, 1958 issue (letter #427) of the "Economic Council Letter" carries an article entitled "The Jews In Our Midst". This article deals with the growth of the Jewish population in the United States in general. The following comment is noted in this article concerning the Middle East:

"Of course the Zionist, most but not all of whom are Jews, were at the bottom of our involvement in the setting up of the purely synthetic State of Israel. If keen American minds had sought diligently to find an action which would work greater harm to America they could not have done a better job. And there's not an Arab in the Middle East or anywhere else for that matter who does not know that President Truman, under Zionist pressure, prevailed upon the United Nations in late November, 1947, to reverse itself and adopt the Partition Resolution. So all Arabs blame the United States. And the Zionists got us into it."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[ ] advised that the Christian Nationalist Crusade (CNC) was organized in St. Louis, Missouri, in 1947, and moved its headquarters to Glendale, California, in 1953, where it continues to be located; that from the parent CNC subsidiary organizations, including the Christian Nationalist Party (of America), have developed; that these organizations all reflect in their literature the imprint of their chief organizer and director, GERALD L.K. SMITH, whose basic argument has been that this nation, traditionally Christian and racially segregated, is threatened by anti-Christian and racially "mongrelizing" forces such as Communism and Internationalism all dominantly motivated by international Jewry which controls this country financially and politically; and that these organizations are not membership organizations but represent followers who contribute to them or subscribe to their literature.

Although GERALD L.K. SMITH and his close associates are not known to have appealed to illegal action, the tenor of their statements and program is intensively anti-Semitic as indirectly indicated by the slogan of the Christian Nationalist Party, announced in 1950 which was "One Faith - One Race - One Nation." No credence should be given to any allegations that SMITH's meetings are "secret". It is true that SMITH and his staff hold policy meetings and the like restricted to themselves but that statements of "secret" meetings regarding their appearance at the Embassy Auditorium in Los Angeles, California, are intended only to spur interest in attendance. It is possible that small groups of CNC followers may hold meetings of a sort but such meetings receive no organizational direction or control from CNC headquarters.

The July, 1956, volume 15, number 4 issue of "The Cross and The Flag" contains the following article on pages five and six of this edition.

"ANTI-SEMITIC JEWS

"When one Jew brands another as anti-Semitic, that is about as newsy as the headline "Man Bites Dog." This situation has grown out of the extreme attitudes of political Zionism. The Zionist organizations, which represent a high percentage of the Jewish "community, have for some time been persuing a certain Jewish organization without mercy and without tolerance. The organization which they have been persecuting is the American Council of Judaism. This organization is made up of numerous prominent Jews who are opposed to Zionism. They believe political Zionism is dual citizenship. They do not believe that anyone can be a citizen, of Palestine and a citizen of the United States at the same time; that one should be one or the other. They have carried on a vigorous campaign against political Zionism, its method of handling money, its mode of operation, its lobbying and its coercive techniques.

"Now comes an article in the leading Jewish journals reporting on a survey that has been made by the Jew Zionists of America. These Jew Zionists have identified the most successful and anti-Semitic organization in the world. No, it is not the Christian Nationalist Crusade. No, it is not the Common Sense publications. No, it is not the publishing organization which distributes the book by Colonel John Beaty entitled "The Iron Curtain Over America."

"Out of Evansville, Indiana, under the initials of the National Jewish Press Service comes a report from the Zionists saying that the most anti-Semitic organization in the world and the most successful anti-organization in the world is none other than the 'American Council for Judaism.' This American Council for Judaism is composed completely and altogether of Jews. When the Jew Zionists brand any Jew who is an anti-Zionist an anti-Semite, then one must admit there exists a type of intolerance and extremism and bigotry which can scarcely be exaggerated. These Zionists are going to fool around and make themselves so ridiculous that they will lose their coercive power, and the quicker they lose it the happier the writer will be."

The May, 1957, volume 16, number 2, issue of "The Cross and The Flag" carries an article entitled "The Middle East Crisis" on pages 16 through pages 21 of this edition. This article is the text of a speech delivered by [redacted] before the conference on the Middle East sponsored by Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls, Iowa.

[redacted] is currently employed at the Arab States Delegation, 120 East 56th Street, New York City. The following is a quotation taken from this speech entitled "Conclusion":

"Conclusion

"This, ladies and gentlemen, is our problem. I have put it before you, to look at, to ponder it, and as students of political science, to decide for yourselves whether or not this is the right way to win the hearts and minds of the Arabs. It is for you to see whether, in the face of all the problems which you, the West, confront us with, it is still possible for us to continue to have faith in your principles and doctrines which you have on paper but which you do not practice in our lands. I ask you to look back at these questions and to think about them. By looking back, we obtain guidance for the future.

"I hope you will excuse my frankness when I tell you that the previous Administration in the United States has made serious mistakes in the Middle East, the basic one being the creation of a foreign state in our lands against the will of the majority of the Arab people of Palestine, and in utter disregard of the right of self-determination. But this mistake can still be rectified and only by its rectification can you, future soldiers of America, be sure that you won't be fighting another Zionist war.

Volume 16, number 4, the July, 1957 edition of "The Cross and The Flag" contains an article on pages 3 and 25 of this edition. This article is entitled, "The Story of a Palestine Arab Refugee". The article is written by SAMI HADAWI, who is currently the Assistant Director of the Palestine Arab Refugee Office, 801 Second Avenue, New York 17, New York. The article is preceded by the following editor's note:

"It was the pleasure of the editors of The Cross and the Flag to visit personally with Mr. Hadawi whose story we reproduce herewith. It is one of the most appealing, dramatic and factual statements to come to our attention.

"We present Mr. Hadawi's statement in two sections. The first section is a general statement. The second section is Mr. Hadawi's testimony concerning the broken hearted experience of being driven out of his homeland. Mr. Hadawi is a devout Christian Arab."

The story deals with the period just after November 29, 1947, when, according to Hadawi, the Zionists started sporadic attacks against Arab areas in Palestine.

Volume 16, number 10 issue of January, 1958 edition of "The Cross and The Flag" carries a story on pages 5 and 6 entitled, "A Guest From Egypt". This article is as follows:

"A Guest From Egypt

"When I was in Washington, D.C., recently I was called on by a brilliant young man, 33 years of age, who is a citizen of Egypt. He is a journalist and a radio commentator. His name is [redacted] insists that Egypt is not only not Communist, but Egypt is anti-Communist. He told me that the very day they were called on by a representative of the Russian Government agreeing to furnish wheat and other materials to Egypt, the Government of Nasser sentenced numerous high officials in the Communist Party to long prison terms. [redacted] insists that the Arab world is afraid of one monster; namely, Jewish aggression, Israeli invasion, Jewish imperial control. They are conscious of the hazards of Communism and they hope and pray that the United States will give Egypt the kind of cooperation and support which will prevent her from being pushed into the arms of Soviet Russia. [redacted] says, however, that if the United States continues to tie up Egyptian money and continues to refuse to deliver wheat and foodstuffs to Egypt and continues to arm and furnish money to Israel, which will be used eventually to invade Egypt, Egypt then will be forced to turn wherever she can turn and regardless of the risk involved for allies necessary to fight off the threatened invader.

ROBERT WILLIAMS

"WILLIAMS INTELLIGENCE SUMMARY"

"KNOW YOUR ENEMY"

On January 17, 1951, Chief JOSEPH VILORD, of the Suffern, New York, Police Department, made available to SA [redacted] a copy of "Williams Intelligence Summary" dated January, 1951. This summary was indicated as having been edited by ROBERT H. WILLIAMS, news analyst, lecturer and former counter-intelligence officer, Post Office Box 868, Santa Ana, California. Chief VILORD also made available a pamphlet entitled, "Know Your Enemy," by ROBERT H. WILLIAMS. The pamphlet, "Know Your Enemy," contained the following statement:

"We must understand that the internal enemy is not confined to the Communist Party as such. We must understand that the aggregate of Zionist organizations which promotes a world revolution paralleling Communism or complementing it as an ally and protector is far more powerful than the Communist Party, having the confidence of many of our highest officials by holding a terrorist weapon over them."

This pamphlet also includes the following:

"Why are so many Jews Communists in tolerant America?"

"Why are all the Communist spy rings and the important Communist leaders and their attorneys Jewish?"

The May 4, 1955, edition of the "New York World Telegram and Sun," on page 1, carried an article entitled, "New Bigots Spread Same Old Poison." This article is by-lined by JACK STEELE, a Scripps-Howard staff writer. STEELE lists the following individuals as writers of this material:

- (1) CONDE MC GINLEY
- (2) ROBERT H. WILLIAMS
- (3) [redacted]

NY 105-34293

Regarding ROBERT H. WILLIAMS, STEELE comments, "This California pamphleteer and hate-sheet editor parades his bigotry under the guise of intelligence. He advertises that his former service as an Air Force counter-intelligence officer makes his publication vital for governors, mayors, police and citizens interested in preventing sabotage and revolution.

"But the Un-American Activities Committee reported that his intelligence duty consisted of less than a year as administrative officer for a bomber wing - a post where it is said he could have received no information about 'the Communist conspiracy.'

"The Air Force cancelled his reserve status commission in 1950 for the 'best interests of the service.' His Williams Intelligence Summary is openly anti-Semitic. It is billed as 'a monthly report on political and military developments especially revealing the Jewish influence in these developments.'

"His pamphlet 'Know Your Enemy' opens with the declaration: 'This publication attacks no man because of his race, but it spares no subverter because of his race.'

"In it Williams suggests that all Jews should be interned in New York and strategic areas. Then he argues these areas would not be bombed by the Soviets.

"Some of his fantasies are even more outrageous. He has charged that 'Jewish General' Curtis Le May arranged to drop the first two atomic bombs on the only two sizeable Christian centers in Japan.

"Williams reported in a recent fund-begging letter that he was running in the red and might have to quit.

NY 105-34293

"'Have I failed in giving you the earthshaking truth?', he asked."

"I can't believe it for I find not a line in recent newspapers and magazines about the greatest news story of all time: the swift destruction of the Anglo-Nordic West, the Christian civilization, through the trickery and financial power of a handful of Jewish manipulators who have all but made themselves masters of the world."

Regarding JOHN O. BEATY, STEELE stated that BEATY is a professor of English at Southern Methodist University at Dallas, Texas, and a wartime Colonel in the Army Intelligence who helped to prepare daily G-2 reports for the White House. STEELE stated that BEATY wrote "The Iron Curtain Over America." According to STEELE, Methodist Minister Reverend RALPH L. ROY described this book as "the most extensive piece of anti-Semitic literature in the history of America's racist movement." "GERALD L. K. SMITH called it 'the most sensational book of this generation,' and paid BEATY and his publishers $3,767.00 in 1952 for copies SMITH presumably resold. BEATY denies that he is anti-Semitic. BEATY continues that in 'Iron Curtain' he explains why its theme is that most European and American Jews are not Jews but 'Khazars.' His theory - endorsed by some other haters - is that these Jews are descended from a Mongol tribe known as 'Khazars' who adopted Judaism. BEATY blames the 'Khazars' for the New Deal, World War II, and Communist subversion. In the footnotes of this book he quotes such authorities as MC GINLEY's 'Common Sense.' He states the charges that he is anti-Semitic are absurd and maintains that the 'Khazar Jew' is himself not a Semite. BEATY's attacks on Jews, whether 'Khazars' or Semites, are not confined to this book. Hate sheets carried letters from him last fall declaring that Christmas had become 'a buying orgy in which money passes from Christian into non-Christian hands.'"

Concerning JACK B. TENNEY, STEELE states that "TENNEY is the former chairman of the California Committee on Un-American

NY 105-34293

"Activities and is a recent convert to the hate brigade. He lost his seat in the State Senate last year after a campaign in which he attacked Jews."

"TENNEY once called GERALD L. K. SMITH a 'racial agitator' but in 1952 was the Vice Presidential nominee of SMITH's Christian Nationalist Party. SMITH contributed to his campaign and TENNEY now works for SMITH's 'The Cross and the Flag.' TENNEY also denies that he is anti-Semitic but has written three pamphlets attacking Jews: 'Zion's Fifth Column,' 'Zionist Network,' and 'Zion's Trojan Horse.'"

"In a 1952 pamphlet defending the work of his committee, he gave these views on anti-Semitism: 'There is anti-Semitism and it is un-American, but it is not a badge of disloyalty to the US. It is unreasonable and irrational and it is un-Christian and amoral but it isn't a crime. It is as much a part of American freedom as is 'anti-Gentilism' or a dislike of spinach.'"

Regarding [REDACTED] STEELE stated that "he is a free lancer of hate, a Virginian in his early thirties, and his bigoted articles have appeared since 1951 in 'Common Sense' and other hate sheets."

"In 1952, an article entitled, 'Adolf Hitler; An Appreciation,' appeared under his by-line in the bulletin of the National Renaissance Party, since branded by the Un-American Activities Committee as neo-Fascist."

b7C

"He was active in the Aryan League of America and is credited with the authorship of the 'Rabbi Rabinovich canard' - a modern version of the forged anti-Semitic 'Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion.' [REDACTED] worked briefly for the Library of Congress as a photographic assistant. He was let out in 1952 after Library officials learned of his bias."

The "Williams Intelligence Summary" of November, 1950, reflects the following information:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

(U)

The July 15, 1958, issue of "Common Sense," on the last page states that "Common Sense" is published by the Christian Educational Association, Union, New Jersey. This same issue, on the same page, reflects that CONDE MC GINLEY is the editor of "Common Sense," which is published twice monthly at 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey.

(U) Concerning CONDE MC GINLEY, [redacted], on January 30, 1959, stated from his own knowledge he could not furnish any specific instance which would prove that CONDE MC GINLEY or his associates advocate, condone or incite violence for the purpose of denying others their constitutional rights. He stated, however, he believes MC GINLEY is a dedicated fanatic, and although he will not openly write advocating violence, that such can be inferred from various writings in his newspaper, "Common Sense" and from his cooperation in the past with various anti-Semitic and anti-integration groups. He stated that in his opinion, it could be concluded from MC GINLEY's writings and actions that he desires elimination of all minority groups and probably feels that this must be accomplished by violence.

This source was unable to furnish any specific facts to substantiate his opinion that MC GINLEY would advocate violence, and based his opinion mainly on various articles which have appeared throughout the years in MC GINLEY's literature.

The publication, "Common Sense," was characterized in a report issued on December 17, 1954, by the Committee on Un-American Activities of the United States House of Representatives, as a "hate group" vehicle publishing "some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the Committee." According to the report, "Common Sense," depicts Communism as "Judaism" and devotes its pages almost exclusively to attacks on the Jewish, and to a lesser extent, the Negro minorities in our Nation. Sympathy for the former Nazi regime in Germany is also injected into this propaganda.

The January 15, 1959 edition of the newspaper "Common Sense" carries an article "Ye Shall Know The Truth And The Truth Shall Make You Free". This article is critical of the Israelis and the Zionists and is concerned almost exclusively with financial help extended to the Israeli Government. This article was signed by SAMI HADAWI, Assistant Director, Palestine Refugee Office, 801 2nd Avenue, New York 17, New York.

The February 1, 1959, edition of the newspaper "Common Sense" carries the following article on pages three and four:

"COMMON SENSE ANSWERS SMEARS

"The New York Daily News, regarded as the most pro-American paper in New York City, allowed David Burk to run five articles smearing pro-Americans. Among those American patriots the article attempted to smear was Benjamin H. Freedman. These articles misquoted Mr. Freedman in such a way that Mr. Freedman has sued the Daily News for $200,000. Several years ago the Jews picketed the News for several months and withdrew most of their advertising. Now the Jewish advertising varies from ten pages on week days to 70 on Sunday.

"Quite a number of your readers have expressed amazement at the appearance of such smear articles in the New York Daily News. They, like ourselves, felt that such a tirade is far below the standard of your paper. There are many false statements in this series that it would be no surprise to find such in the New York Post or other blatant publications. Apparently there has been some unusual pressure brought on some department of your worthy paper. In fact, upon investigation, we learned that the man who wrote the series, [redacted] (or [redacted]) cooperated with the Anti-Defamation League in preparing this material. "We enclose photo copy of short article which appeared in the New York Telegram and Sun, Wednesday, December 15, 1954, which states:

"Washington. Dec. 15. -- A procedural battle broke out in the House Un-American Activities Committee today over a proposed report recommending that the Justice Department prosecute alleged "neo-Fascist" groups under the Smith Act. Copies of the proposed report were leaked to reporters yesterday.

"Rep. Francis E. Walters (D., Pa.) who will take over the committee chairmanship next month, denounced the whole procedure today. He charged that the committee had held no hearings relating to the report and had not discussed the subject in executive hearings. He said he had not seen the report. Mr. Walters noted that committee rules bar the release or disclosure of any report until after its approval by a majority of the members. "This kind of thing is going to stop next year," he

"Secrets On The Zionist Octopus In America"

"Zionism in the United States of America is conducting a dangerous campaign against Arab nationalism. Zionism is trying to implement its plans by implicating the U.A.R. (United Arab Republic) with a fancied conspiracy; for Zionism faces a severe crisis threatening its organizational structure dominant in each of the forty eight states. Zionism is trying to escape this crisis at any cost now that finally all its plans and secret organizations have been unraveled.

"[redacted] writes a completely investigated report on secrets of Zionist domination in the Pentagon, the Congress and the Atomic Energy Committee in the U.S.A.

b6
b7c

"This special investigation was conducted with the utmost secrecy.

"Secrets of a new Israeli conspiracy against the U.A.R., a long range conspiracy planned and completed by 'The Secret Organization for Zionism in the U.S.A.'

"This dangerous conspiracy begins at a specific point, continues in a specific direction and ends at a specific goal. This goal is preventing any friendship - which is a possibility - to take place between the U.A.R. and the U.S.A.

"Zionism views with danger - extreme danger - the idea of the American people understanding the truth of Arab Nationalism's liberated policy. Zionism aims at perpetuating the veil of deceit and wrongful policy on the eyes of America's policy makers and acts to see it proceed in a course designed for it.

NY 105-34293

"Zionism is trying to misrepresent the forthright policy of President Gamal Abdel Nasser on the critical principles; for Zionism knows perfectly well that all destructive principles begin and end with it.

"This was the path of the conspiracy and its goal.

"Details of the dangerous undertaking began in a diversified campaign. A campaign waged by all Zionist dominated American newspapers and magazines talking voluminous of a fancied conspiracy. A campaign carried on radio and T. V. stations (numbering at least 600) programmed President Nasser, strong man of the Near East, carrying the Israeli battle from around the armistice lines to the heart of America itself.

"Zionist organizations campaigned across America warning of a fearful threat from Arab press officers, sent by President Nasser to destroy Zionism from its source.

"Secret Organizations:

"That's how it all began, and that was the strange course it followed. Conferences costing millions of dollars were held to find strong evidence for such propaganda and give a complete picture to the American public.

"They thought it necessary to find contrasts - even though far-fetched- to raise the black flag and light-up the red light on the extent of danger confronting Zionist Israel.

NY 105-34293

"Zionism searched the six arms of the Octopus at length, until it stumbled on what it considered evidence that could be taken as a contrast.

"The campaign committee came out declaring once again that 'secret organizations' working for Gamal Abdel Nasser, that consider him as its leader and source of inspiration, are active in the heart of America.

"Cause of action.

"The campaign did not cease at this but continued into extreme directions saying, 'Nasser started this plan four years ago, and planned it to infuriate American public opinion against the Jews; that the extent of his plan increases daily through the increased activity of these organizations'.

"The Zionist campaign continued by saying, 'For . . . who else is concerned in destroying Zionism and its progress in America? and who is the one concerned most with liquidating Israel in the Mid-East? and who is the greatest enemy to Arab Nationalism in the region? and who is the protector of Arab Nationalism from this enemy?' The name of Gamal Abdel Nasser recurring in all this fancied conspiracy against Zionism carried a specific meaning.

"Zionist propaganda associated 'Arab Nationalism' with fear, distress and warning to frighten the American people of this so called 'monster'. This was done to induce the simple of the public across America to answer the poisonous call for yearly contributions to Israel; and to accumulate dollars from American Jewry and put it in the 'secret organization's' safe to enable it to execute the conspiracy.

"100,000 Immigrants.

"Zionist conspirators want 50 million dollars contributions for the year 1959 from the U. S. public . . this against 20 million Israeli pounds from Israeli's- public. Also special funds will be raised for transferring the 100,000 immigrants from Eastern Europe to new colonies ready for them in the Negev desert, and on the plains of Galilee.

"This is the color of the new conspiracy that beckoned clearly over the last few weeks. And this is the phony technique executed by 'the World Zionist forces' to confront the mounting force of Arab Nationalism.

"This, however, does not mean that conspiracies, lies and deceit are new to Zionism in America; the new thing actually is the strong opposing current which Zionism faces these days on the same battleground which it considered an open territory for itself and its intentions.

"A New Element.

"This opposing current to Zionism, emerges in the form of American Organizations fighting Zionism; they move to unravel Zionist methods aimed at dominating America's government structure, its economic and military organizations. These organizations proceed to give facts, names and figures to the American public; truths to the lies which the American public was surrounded with.

"The forces of Zionism thought at the beginning that this news current is nothing but a mere summer cloud which will quickly disappear, but the surprise was much more than they expected; for it was evident that this cloud was made out of thick layers that

"accumulated over the years and then thunder and lightning came and it rained flooding and carrying in its path all the fences erected by Zionism between the American people and truths. Thus the truth was unveiled and exposing the dangerous face of Zionism after it brazenly ruled.

"Behind The Campaign Which Accuses Gamal Abdel Nasser Of Dynamiting Jewish Temples.

"306 Zionist Organizations

"Over 306 Zionist organs working in America for Israel moved to crush the hand which caused the 'phony veil' to drop. The 'secret High Committee', representative body of all these organizations, met to discuss the subject and came out with the following result: that everything said by the organizations opposing Zionism were truths and facts.

"That all these organizations have their position of respect in the minds of the American people and are not to be maligned.

"That the purpose of these campaigns is awakening the public and responsible men in the White House to the seriousness of the situation and nothing more.

"Planned Impetus.

"In concluding it appeared to the Zionists that this impetus is purposeful, moved by a foreign hand, towards a specific purpose. Since these anti-Zionist organizations were anti-Communist they had to affiliate this hand with a non-Communist element; for Zionism believed these organizations were trying to fight their destructive activity and change America's policy.

NY 105-34293

"An idea for a new conspiracy against the U.A.R. loomed in an inquisitive manner: 'why can't we say that Nasser is director of this campaign against Zionism? and why can't we say that he is in contact with all these organizations attacking Israel?'

"The lines of the campaign were drawn and completed in this fashion. The forces of Zionism proceeded to action; its action was channeled towards two goals:

"1. Campaigning for a huge budget to be obtained through contributions, especially now that strong opposition became apparent inside the Zionist groups for the levied taxes collected yearly for Israel.

"2. Meeting the disturbance created for Zionism in America among itself over the last two years; and giving all Zionists a picture endangering the very existence of the organization.

"Disagreements:

"Zionism suffered divergent opinions soon after the creation of Israel; particularly on such important problems, as the position of Jews in the various countries towards the Zionist movement. Should Zionism be the primary or only representative body for one Israeli State; should it be the only agent for Israel overseas; should it campaign to spread Zionist doctrines; is a Zionist's ultimate goal migrating to Israel; and what position should be taken towards all other Zionist organizations outside Israel?

NY 105-34293

"Israel views the Jews of the world completely different than the Jews of the world view Israel. Israel considers world Jewry responsible for financing it and aiding it in international relations. Israel considers the World Zionist Organization has completed its primary task by the establishment of the Israeli State; and that it is Israel's responsibility alone, to direct Jews all over the world; for Israel considers herself the official representative of all Jews.

"Ben-Gurion's Plans.

"This matter of representation raised a serious disagreement between the rulers of Israel and the Zionist leaders.

"Mr. Ben Gurion found it necessary to have a strong Zionist movement in the U.S.A., but its strength should be confined to its own affairs, and not have special rights or privileges in the Israeli Government.

"Mr. Ben Gurion saw Zionism's primary duty as strengthening loyalty among all Jews towards Judaism; the spreading of the Hebrew Language amongst them, and the strengthening of their emotional ties with Israel. But as Jews living outside Israel they have nothing to say on matters undertaken by the Israeli Government.

"Development of Crisis.

"Zionist leaders in America headed by [redacted] held completely different views; even though both agreed on the necessity of having a strong Zionist authority in America.

b7c

"Differences intensified in the years following 1950; and Jewish elements in the United States found it necessary to reconsider its position with regards to Israel. Some voices said, that Jews do not have any specific obligations towards the new state and therefore they are not required to contribute to it.

NY 105-34293

"This policy was warmly endorsed by most Jews in America, particularly capitalist investors pressured by Israel to invest in the Negev and Galilee districts.

"These differences crystalized during the last year, and became a huge problem threatening the internal structure of the Zionist organizations in America; thus necessitating quick action to face the problems, at any cost, before it explodes.

"Secret Of The Surprise.

"As a result of the campaign against its activity in the U.S.A., Zionism shivered, and relieved of duty its higher leadership led by Sherman Adams, [redacted] and [redacted]. Zionism decided to destroy this campaign at any cost, and in any fashion so that its secrets will not be exposed to American public opinion.

b7C

"Detailed secrets revealing Zionist objectives and methods in America, even though remote from America's foreign policy, meant one serious thing and that is 'domination.'

"Zionist Influence.

"It was explained, without equivocation, that Zionism influences everything in America and directs it to suit its purposes.

"1. The White House is under its influence in an indirect way.

"2. The Central bank is under Zionists' complete influence.

"3. The Press, radio and television are under its influence.

"4. Education, Health and Medicines are under its influence.

"5. The United Nations itself and its offices and actions in an indirect way are under its influence.

NY 105-34293

"Propaganda Method.

"Most serious of all is having the press subjected to Zionist influences. Zionists' activity in America is confined to utilizing the means of press and propaganda to the utmost advantage.

"The leadership of the secret Zionist organization saw the mind as the primary mover of any internal or foreign policy. Therefore it sought thought control to gain direction of action.

"The number of Zionist newspapers and magazines published in the U.S.A. is 213 and this number, naturally, does not include magazines issued quarterly, periodical propaganda publications and radio and T.V. speeches. Zionist activity is centered in New York, where 123 publications are published.

"These facts clarify the extent of the Zionists' influence and its propaganda in the largest city in America. They reveal the tremendous possibilities it controls in the field of world politics, and its ability to direct public opinion in the U.S.A.

"Heading the list of directing Zionist policy in America is Mr. John Gates who is the responsible official inside the Secret Zionist Organization in this regard (propaganda). Another is [redacted] who controls public relations channels in the American Government, which includes press, radio and television.

b7C

"America today has thirty million T.V. sets, all receiving programs coming to it from television stations controlled by wealthy Zionists in America.

"A point in particular is evident here when a national broadcasting station named [redacted] (could be [redacted] was refused a license by the Government because [redacted] realized that this station was not under the influence of Zionist

NY 105-34293

b6
b7C

"bankers and therefore it would be an independent element in directing public opinion. [redacted] acted, bribes were paid, obstacles were placed until the project was dropped.

"Policy Making Body

"This is one of a thousand incidents that happen daily, and this is one of a million incidents going on at the White House, the Pentagon, the Congress and all branches of the Government.

"Behind the scenes influencing public opinion through radio and television are:

"1. [redacted] of Zionist propaganda.

"2. [redacted] aided by [redacted] and [redacted]

"3. [redacted] and [redacted]

"Jewish newspapers in America are dominated by two authorities:

"1. The Jewish movement.

"2. The Orthodox Jews.

"Some newspapers represent all Zionist religious organizations; example is the 'American Zionist' newspaper which was called 'The New Palestine' and had its name changed after the creation of the State of Israel. The 'New Palestine' considers itself spokesman for the Z.O.A. (Zionist Organization of America).

"Another newspaper is 'Hadassah' which is associated with the Hadassah organization.

NY 105-34293

"Another is the newspaper 'Mizrahi' which is associated with the Mizrahi organization and is evangelistic.

"In addition to the above-mentioned papers are most of the major American newspapers controlled by Zionism through the bankers.

"Plans and Direction

"Zionist forces in the U.S.A. have 306 organizations with thousands of branches all over the country. Most of these organizations are in New York active in defense, political, social, educational, and religious affairs in conjunction with serving Israel and Zionist activity. All of the above-mentioned institutions are under their influence.

"Major Institutions.

"Heading the religious institutions is the Zionist Organization of America. Its organization undertakes the major tasks of the Zionist movement, political and social.

"The Z.O.A. adopted this name when it replaced the American Zionists Union in 1917 and extended its membership to individuals rather than organizations.

"The mysterious policy of this organization is based on the principle of dividing the U.S.A. into regional sections, called districts, and into smaller branch units called headquarters. These in turn perform the requested action in all the large American cities.

"400,000 Members.

"The Z.O.A. has a pyramid-like structure, with headquarters in New York and branches out to the smallest unit. The organization's president serves a two year term for not more than two terms.

NY 105-34293

"The Zionist Organization's administrative structure is divided into two bodies:

"1. A National Administrative Council, authorized to act during conference periods.

"2. An executive committee to perform daily tasks and urgent undertakings. Specialized employees in both organs work under civil service.

"The Zionist Organization in America, is considered the largest organization, inside the World Zionist Organization, with 400,000 members.

"The Z.O.A. according to reports written on it proved to have strong influence in the Zionist movement and in its direction.

"Dangerous Course.

"The Z.O.A. plans direction of thought across America. Its lecturer's office prepares thousands of speakers yearly to give lectures inside and outside America. Conferences all over the world are held under its direction.

"Financial sources of the Zionist Organization of America, from membership alone, reach ten thousand dollars annually; also direct contributions are paid to the central body through the branch offices.

"The Woman's Role.

"The Hadassah Organ, is a Zionist women's group, aiming at domination of America's women.

"Hadassah began 46 years ago, under the leadership of Hezita Zold and twelve other Jewish women.

"Hadassah started out under the name of 'Daughters of Zion'. Its sphere of influence and responsibilities increased over the years, so that today it has 1200 groups spread all over the U.S.A., Alaska and Puerto Rico, with total membership of 300,000 women.

NY 105-34293

"Primary Task: Israel.

"Primary task of Hadassah is spreading propaganda in America on Israel, through social endeavors; and explaining through persuasion the meaning of Zionism to Jewish women.

"Hadassah's influence extends to Israel where it operates all general health programs and sheltering of European Jewish refugees.

"Hadassah is considered one of the largest sources of contribution. Both old and new Hadassah's contributions in one year totaled over 290 thousand dollars.

"It appears at first glance that these Organizations are controlled by Nahum Goldman, who is head of the Zionist Organization; the truth however is to the contrary.

"There is a very secret organ, known only to few people throughout the world, which leads, dominates and directs not only the Z.O.A. and not only the World Zionist Organizations but also rules the economics, the policies and thought throughout the world. This organ rules the major banks and world establishments and foreign ministries and the United Nations. It rules, directs, and scares."

A review of this material reflects that in the main the "Arab World" follows the caption on its masthead, "A monthly review of progress in the Arab Countries." This magazine is devoted almost in its entirety to the social and economic advantages and advancements of the Arab countries.

The "Arab News and Views" is a four page pamphlet published monthly and sometimes more frequently. This particular media is devoted to social, economic and political news relating to the Arab countries.

The social and economic views portrayed are of no interest to this inquiry. The political views are favorable to the Arab causes and problems; however, in some issues the political columns are mildly critical of the Algerian situation (1957) and the attempt by Israel to exploit the (UN) Security Council for propaganda purposes.

The AIC press releases which are issued several times a month contain such information as: a Cedar Falls release of March 27 (1957) regarding a statement before a conference on the Middle East sponsored by Iowa State Teachers College wherein [redacted], member of the Syrian Permanent Mission to the United Nations blamed Zionist pressure groups in America for the "unfortunate feeling towards the United States in the Arab World;" a statement dated November 1, 1957 concerning Syria's fear of Turkish aggression; a release datelined, Milwaukee, October 31, 1957, indicating that reports disseminated in the American press and originating in most instances from London, Paris and Tel Aviv about Communist penetration into the Arab World are misleading; a release dated October 24 (1957) wherein [redacted] stated "The Arab world would never voluntarily accept the Communist doctrine;" a release dated at New York, October 14 (1957), wherein the people of Oman appealed to the world conscience for "badly needed" relief material and medical supplies; a release dated at New York, January 3 (1957) announcing Arab League [redacted] flight to Canada for an informal four-day visit which would include talks with top Canadian officials; a release dated March 2 (1957) at New York, announcing the arrival in New York of Ambassador KAMIL ABDUL RAHIM, Permanent Observer of the League of Arab States at the United Nations after a three month visit to the Arab world; a release dated at San Francisco, October 23 (1957), which states, "Communism is incompatible with the objectives of the Arab national movement," said [redacted] of the Arab States Delegation Office in New York, in a lecture on the Berkley Campus of the University of California. ----"Aggressive Zionism, not communism, is the real threat to the peace in the Middle East. Arab states have purchased arms from the Soviet Bloc purely for their own self-defense against Israel -- the same source from which Israel received arms in 1948 and 1949."

NOTE: The following material describes in great detail the so called "Palestine problem" beginning with the alleged tragedy of 1948. This material comments on the original geographic boundries of this country and the results of mass immigration of Jews into the area and the resultant partitions of the land which greatly affected the physical well being and economic situations of the Arabs who originally resided in Palestine.

The material also comments on the Israeli and Zionist propaganda that not only attended this mass migration of Jews but has given a distorted picture of the situation in the Holy Land.

One particular document traces the "Palestine Case" from the Husain-McMahon Correspondence of 1916.

In view of the amount of this particular material it is only being mentioned generally.

In view of the fact that there is no indication that this material has been supplied to any of the so called "hate propagandists" in this investigation it is not being placed in the details of this report.

This material is set out as follows:

"Land Ownership in Palestine"

This is a 46 page booklet by SAMI HADAWI and published by the Palestine Arab Refugee Office, 801 2nd Avenue, New York 17, New York.

The following is quoted from the foreword of this booklet:

"Most of the material which has been written about Palestine since the tragedy of 1948, has dealt with the political side of the issue. The Israeli propaganda machine tries to give the impression to the outside world that the Palestine problem is nothing more than a case of a dispute over a country which legally and legitimately belongs to the Jews and which the Arab States covet to annex to their own vast territories. As such, all other problems affecting the rights and interests of the Arab inhabitants of Palestine are of a secondary nature.

"The fact that is generally over-shadowed by this Israeli and Zionist propaganda, and which, as a result, has been overlooked by world opinion so far as Palestine is concerned, is that the status of a country as belonging to a particular people is judged by the natural rights of the individuals who have been born and have tilled its soil for generations, rather than governed by political or other considerations.

"For the last four decades, Zionist propaganda has given a distorted picture of the situation in the Holy Land. Statements have been made that Palestine was an undeveloped country; that it was sparsely populated by nomad tribes ruled by 'feudal lords'; that there was room for Jewish immigration; and that Zionist achievements are liable to make 'the desert blossom.' The effect of this propoganda on the average person has been that many were led to believe that the lands of Palestine legally belong to the Jews and that the Arabs, who had sold their lands at high prices, were now trying to get them back by aggression against Israel.

"The aim of the Palestine Arab Refugee Office in New York has been to refute such falsehoods and place before the American people, the Government and the United Nations the true facts about the situation in Palestine from the date of the 'Balfour Declaration' until the present deadlock.-----"

This booklet then goes on to describe the geography of Palestine; the land problem; demilitarized zones and no-mans land; Arab "seized" property and Israeli measures for expropriation of Arab property. (Filed 3/7/57)

"Tension and Peace in the Middle East."

This is a forty page booklet by IZZAT TANNOUS, M.D., published by The Palestine Arab Refugee Office, 801 2nd Avenue, New York 17, New York. This booklet is also entitled "An Account of the Tragedy of the Holyland."

The forward of this booklet states in part....."In this pamphlet we give a brief account of the historic background of this tragedy, the tension it has caused in the Middle East, and the disastrous effects it will have on the whole world if a just solution to the Palestine problem is not found.-----"

"In the last fifty years, Zionists in the United States have been, by an extraordinary and unparalleled propaganda machinery, meticulously educating the American people to see only their point of view in the Palestine issue. By distorting facts and often giving wrong information, they were able to win American sympathy to such an extent as to make the American people participate with them in uprooting a whole nation from its homeland and replacing it with militant Zionists from all parts of the world. The newcomers became the legal owners of Palestine and the original lawful Arab inhabitants became strangers to it. This is precisely the cause of the war that has been going on in the Middle East for the last nine years.-----"

This booklet then goes on to describe the Arab way of life, historical background of the Palestine problem, the refugee problem, Arab persecution, the refugees and communism and a way to peace in the Holy Land. (Filed 5/28/57)

This material also contains a book entitled:

"Official Documents, Pledges and Resolutions on Palestine" "Beginning with the Husain-McMahon Correspondence, 1916."

This is a 69 page mimeographed edition of documents of special interest in any study of the Palestine case compiled by the Palestine Arab Refugee Office, 801 2nd Avenue, New York 17, New York, dated at New York, January, 1957.

Most of the material appearing in this book also appears in issues (1957) of the "Newsletter" issued by The Palestine Arab Refugee Office, 801 2nd Avenue, New York City.

The foreword of this book is written by IZZAT TANNOUS, Director of the Palestine Arab Refugee Office.

TANNOUS states that in November (1957) the Palestine case will celebrate its fortieth birthday; "and when a problem remains unsolved for so long and continues to deteriorate there must be something basically wrong that has been done which needs to be undone."

The book relates a series of historic events all of which appear according to the story to be indicative of the continuous and present plight of the Arabs in Palestine.

JAMES H. MADOLE

On March 19, 1959, JAMES H. MADOLE voluntarily appeared at the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and was interviewed by SAS THOMAS G. SPENCER and [REDACTED]

b7C

JAMES H. MADOLE advised that in connection with material he has published for the National Renaissance Party (NRP), he has never been approached by any representative of any foreign government to act on their behalf. He also stated that no foreign government official has requested him to publish any material favoring a particular stand of a foreign government in any of his, MADOLE'S, publications. MADOLE also advised that at no time has he ever received any money from any agency of any foreign government in connection with his associations with the NRP, or for any other reason. MADOLE further advised that at no time had he ever been approached by a representative of a foreign government with a solicitation that MADOLE publish material concerning a foreign government in any of his, MADOLE'S, publications. MADOLE stated, however, that he has, on numerous occasions, published material in his publication, principally the "National Renaissance Bulletin," concerning matters in which a foreign government had an interest. Although MADOLE frankly stated he could not afford to be specific in this regard, that he did, from time to time, publish in his "National Renaissance Bulletin" economic and political material affecting countries other than the United States. He stated that if the material in question was pertinent to a particular problem in a foreign country, he would supply this particular foreign government, either in the United States or abroad, with copies of his material dealing with this particular problem.

When questioned concerning whether the bulk of his material was concerned with the so-called Middle East countries, MADOLE stated that he did not want to answer that question directly, and replied that the information might concern any country in the world. MADOLE indicated that he would not specify any particular foreign representative or foreign government which he had furnished literature to, inasmuch as he did not want to divulge his contacts in this regard.

MADOLE was questioned whether he had ever received any correspondence resulting from his furnishing copies of his "National Renaissance Bulletin" to representatives of foreign governments. MADOLE stated that he had never received any replies from any government to whom he had sent his material in which that government had commented on the content of his material. MADOLE stated that not only had he not received any acknowledgements in sending this material, but that he had not received any remuneration for having directed this material to these foreign governments.

MADOLE stated that during the past several years he had obtained quantities of literature published by foreign governments which he had stamped with the name of his party, the NRP, and had distributed to members of this party. He stated he had never sold any of this literature, and indicated that it would not be profitable to attempt to sell this type of literature. MADOLE indicated that this literature was obtained from many different foreign countries and was by no means restricted to Arab countries, although it was primarily concerned with countries which have a strong nationalistic tendency. MADOLE again stated that he would not specifically indicate which countries he had obtained literature from, or any specific foreign representative who had furnished him with such literature. He explained generally this literature dealt with the same aims and objectives which the NRP supports.

Concerning the NRP, MADOLE stated that he had never made public the number of its members, and would not do so at this time; however, he indicated that several weeks ago, when he was robbed, that over 5,000 names were taken from his files, and this did not include all the names which he maintained. He stated, however, that he did not necessarily mail the bulletin or other literature to everyone on his mailing list, inasmuch as the cost would be prohibitive.

NY 105-34293

MADOLE would not indicate the number of persons to whom he did mail literature, or the number of copies of the "National Renaissance Bulletin," which are produced each month. He added that he knows that his literature has been received in all states of the United States, and in many foreign countries. MADOLE explained that finances for the party are obtained from contributions and from the sale of the "National Renaissance Bulletin," and other party literature. He stated that he is the only person who is authorized in the NRP to print literature, and to his knowledge, no other individual has ever used the stamp of the NRP on any literature. He indicated he knows of no person in the NRP who has been solicited by a foreign government to perform any services. MADOLE identified an individual named [redacted] as a follower of the NRP by the name of [redacted] who resides at [redacted] but indicated that he was not more active than any other NRP member, and had never been in contact with any foreign government in behalf of the NRP, so far as MADOLE knows.

b7C

MADOLE said that it was his opinion that the "New York Daily News" articles concerning him, which had been written by DAVID BURK, were instigated and probably written by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, in New York City, in an effort to embarrass the United Arab Republic Government at a time when it was seeking a re-approachment with the United States Government. He based this observation on the fact that the November, 1958, Anti-Defamation League Bulletin contained information and pictures identical to those which later appeared in the "Daily News" articles. He cited an example of this was information contained in the November, 1958, Anti-Defamation League Bulletin concerning HAROLD ARROWSMITH, which appeared January 20, 1959, in the "Daily News" articles.

[ ] stated that he did not know the source of this material.

This photostat contains the following information.

"B E N J A M I N H. F R E E D M A N.

"AMERICAN!

CHRISTIAN CRUSADER

"Benjamin H. Freedman, former industrialist and businessman, former owner of the Woodbury Soap Co., and several other corporations, was born in New York City. He attained his present status as a Christian patroit the hard way.

"Born of Jewish parents, Mr. Freedman became a Christian when quite young. Mr. Freedman has accepted Jesus Christ fully, is a sterling Christian, and spends his time lecturing and educating.

"Some 15 years ago, Mr. Freedman began to wonder about a lot of things in general, world events being what they were, and the Jewish question in particular. He set out to find what was meant by the 'Jewish Race', the 'Chosen People', the 'Promised Land', etc. His inquiry and pursuit of truth led him to the proposed State of Israel, Zionism in general, the Dead Sea and its limitless wealth - the Arabs, their background, status, etc.

"The unbelievable truth that he learned from exhaustive research - the Marxist catch-phrases that the light of history, and the constant searching and unearthing of valuable documents gave the lie to, are written deep in the series of lectures he has given in the past ten years. Mr. Freedman has delivered several lectures to Officers in the Pentagon Building.

"Benjamin Freedman never let up in his search for truth and in his determination to speak and print the truth. His findings told him that the rank and file Jew and Gentile had been deceived by the small clique ruling the Sanhedrin. Mr. Freedman set out to undo the work of Satan's agents, - and thus remove the shackles from both Jew and Gentile. He resolved to do this by oral and printed word.

"He set up the League for Peace with Justice in Palestine in 1946 and founded the first Conference of Christians and Moslems in 1950. He ran page ads in leading newspapers over the United States, spending more than a half million dollars exposing the Palestine conspiracy and the anti-Christian plot. He continued this as long as newspapers would accept the ads. When the newspapers refused to accept ads which Mr. Freedman and those Jews associated with him submitted - - - regardless of their truth, their crying need, and the patriotic character of their content - Mr. Freedman felt the door had been closed to his propagation of the printed word.

"With the press (and of course radio and television) denied him, the future looked glum for this patriot. There was one ray of hope. Mr. Freedman knew of a fighting little anti-Communist paper, printed in Union, N.J. which had carried on a relentless, forthright anti-Communist fight for some years. Perhaps they would run these ads and even whole issues. Mr. Freedman arranged to meet another American patriotic, Conde McGinley, Editor of the above paper.

"Several lengthy conferences ensued. Mr. McGinley went over the matter thoroughly with Mr. Freedman. At length, convinced of his sincerity and that he knew what he was about, and realizing only too well the need for extensive education with regard to the Jewish question in general, and particularly the Zionist phase, decided to open the columns of COMMON SENSE to Mr. Freedman.

"He submitted copy and paid for several entire issues of the paper, running off average of 200,000 copies an issue. Most of these copies were mailed out first class, at Mr. Freedman's expense, to some of the most influential people in the world. A terrific campaign of education was carried on, which later resulted in the change in opinion and policy of some of the most important world leaders.

"Meanwhile, Mr. Freedman continued to lecture. His subsequent appearances included lectures before Christian religious leaders of different denominations, clerical and lay, and civic and business leaders. No group was too big or too small. No hour of the day was too early or too late, no distance too far, as long as more Americans could be informed.

"Ben Freedman was willing to spend and be spent for the sake of Christ. His never-ending, long hour - seven day week - activity of lecturing, writing and counseling has borne fruit over the years. Today he is the confidant of some of the biggest men in the country, and many outside of the country. He is recognized as this country's foremost authority on the Palestine and Israel question. Senators and Congressmen of both parties seek his counsel.

"Mr. Freedman has expended his limit and is unable to help the anti-Christ campaign financially in any way. However, he is giving his full time and efforts and is making available his vast store of knowledge. He will gladly speak anywhere in the United States if he is reimbursed for the bare cost of transportation.

"Mr. Freedman is at present available for talks or lectures before small or large groups. He covers not only the Palestine - Arab - Israel question, so important at this time, but the whole Communist question, and invites any and all questions on the subject and any phase of Marxism.

"The current issue of [redacted] monthly newsletter, 'The American Nationalist', includes this very significant item: 'If you read Arabic you will be interested to learn that an Arabic translation of our book, "Behind Communism", is now available from the Farajalla Press, Box 1012, Beirut, Lebanon.'

"It means that for the second time, at least, this young professional anti-Jewish agitator has worked a deal for himself with the Arabs. The November 1953 issue of his slick-sheet publication featured a piece on the Kibya incident, purporting to show how 'the parasitic state of Israel added another murderous chapter to its already blood-spattered record....' In January, [redacted] got his reward for the article - money from Arab sources.

"The pay-off was for services rendered; the article had been drafted by [redacted] of the Arab League, then shipped to [redacted] for publication. With the check went an order for more copies of the [redacted] publication, ten to twenty thousand, which the Arab League will underwrite.

"The Arabs cannot wriggle out of this one. A quick perusal of the [redacted] newsletter reveals that it is one of the worst anti-Semitic rags in the United States. On a solid basis of co-operation with most of the older professional Jew-baiters, [redacted] conceals nothing....

[redacted] apparently has still other deals pending with the Arabs at this very moment. Earlier this month he was invited on behalf of [redacted] general of the Arab League, to come East as a guest of the Arab League, all expenses covered, for a private conference. In extending the invitation it was explained to [redacted] that no final commitments could be made to him via mail pending the arrival of the new director of the Arab League propaganda office (Kamil Abdul Rahim) from the Middle East.

His stories include charges that Arabs suffer second-class citizenship in Israel; that Israel has been blackmailing Germany with demands for reparations; that all Jews give their first loyalty to Israel; that Jews are mistreating Arab refugees; that Israel's immigration laws are harsher than the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act; that Israel pursues an anti-Gentile policy more ruthless than Nazi Germany's Nuremberg laws; that Israel is an aggressor nation, a perpetrator of atrocities, a deadbeat on its obligations to Arab refugees, etc., etc. . . ." You will be glad to learn that this letter was written after a close co-operation between [redacted] and your servant. A sum of $500 is required now to be able to continue the publication of articles of that type in these and other friendly magazines. . . .

"Jewish propaganda remains at its height here, and we still are in great need of a strong office to clarify the minds and we are waiting with great impatience for the arrival of Mr. Kamil Abdul Rahim and it is important to know before he arrives that the task is extremely difficult and that the Jews still control all information and propaganda services. As [redacted] told me recently 'The situation is very serious but the American people have started to understand the reality of the Jewish conspiracy and it is necessary to co-operate closely in order to find the opportunity to defeat it.'

"Accept the sincere respects,

Last January he got his reward - a $500 check from the Arab League. Made payable to The American Nationalist, it was signed by Rachad Mourad, former Egyptian consul general in New York who has since moved up to a new job as propaganda chief in Washington, with diplomatic rank of counsellor.

"The payoff was for services rendered: the article had been written by Omar Haliq of the Arab League, then shipped to Britton for publication. With the check came an order for more copies, 10- to 20,000, which the Arab League will underwrite.

GERALD L. K. SMITH

The book entitled "Cross Currents" by ARNOLD FORSTER and BENJAMIN R. EPSTEIN copyrighted 1956 by "The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, contains the following information:

"November 20, 1954

"AF to BRE (ARNOLD FORSTER to BENJAMIN R. EPSTEIN):

"KAMIL ABDUL RAHIM, Egypt's former ambassador to the United States, returned to this country this morning, this time to assume the duties of executive director of the long-planned Arab League propaganda office in the United States.

"November 22, 1954

"Research to AF:

"RAHIM made some interesting, off-the-record comments about American Jews to friends the day he arrived. If the Arabs in the United States were to minimize their anti-Semitic agitation, said RAHIM, many American Jews might then lose interest in Zionism and Israel. But, added RAHIM, this was not the solution; there is a better answer. Most Americans do not distinguish between Zionists and Jews. This, he added, is 'something we have to exploit carefully.' Understanding American public opinion as well as he does, RAHIM concluded, it won't be very difficult--although delicate.

"November 23, 1954

"Library to BRE:

"One of the professional agitators with whom the newly arrived RAHIM has been in touch, at least through intermediaries, is GERALD SMITH.

"In 1952, SMITH sent out a number of letters to prominent Arabs concerning various aspects of the 'Jewish problem'. Among those to whom he wrote was KAMIL ABDUL RAHIM, ambassador from Egypt at the time, and when RAHIM's representative, Colonel MOHAMMED ABDEL HALIM KHALIFA, attended the 1952 Republican Convention in Chicago, he had an hour's conversation with the Christian Nationalist leader.

"In his report to RAHIM, KHALIFA indicated that he had been very favorably impressed by SMITH, whom he characterized as one of the principal fighters against Zionism and Jewish influence in the United States. Always the salesman, SMITH boasted to KHALIFA of the 'wonderful cooperation' he had been receiving from various representatives of Syrian-Lebanese American clubs. Believe it or not, SMITH promised KHALIFA that he would exert great influence to see that the platforms of both major parties pay respect to the national aspirations of the Arab states. For a discredited rabble-rouser like SMITH to palm off successfully such a patently phony promise, KHALIFA must be a man who is quite ignorant of the American scene.

"But apparently SMITH has a way with the Arabs. Back in January 1953, Dr. AHMED GALAL ABDELRAZEK, Egypt's permanent representative to the United Nations, ordered SMITH's pamphlets for his legation and found The Cross and the Flag so stimulating that he purchased a hundred subscriptions and expressed an interest in personally meeting its editor, DON LOHBECK.

"It is interesting also, to note that the Saudi Arabian delegation, subscribing to ten copies of The Cross and the Flag at the subscription rate of $2.00 each, sent SMITH a $120 check for the purchase; the $100 gratuity obviously reflected Saudi Arabian gratitude.

"My brothers, my activities last week were concentrated mainly on reports from Iraqi students in American universities. I have given them the task of carrying on an intensive agitation against the gangsters of Tel Aviv. I received eighteen letters from my correspondents in which they reported distributing a considerable number of pamphlets and prospectuses in favor of the Arab cause at universities in Michigan, Massachusetts, California, Washington and at Syracuse and Philadelphia. In these universities my correspondents work quietly and secretly so that Jewish students do not learn about their activities or report about them to their espionage agencies. I sent my correspondents 1800 copies of a pamphlet which I received from my very good friend GERALD SMITH. The sum of it was that the cause of the Arabs is our cause; that we must try to understand it; that we must try to fight for it and learn about it day and night; that we should understand that the cause that the Arab world defends is real anti-communist democracy, and that the Jews are the inventors of communism and are its largest supporters; that we must study the Arab world and understand it; that the Arab world is a world founded by honest people, sincere, frank, and cherishing democracy. I believe that such a pamphlet will touch the hearts of young Americans. Last week I also succeeded in obtaining from my government an appropriation of $2000 which I will spend exclusively to finance our friends organizing a number of meetings. . .

"An Arab League plan, nursed for five years, to organize a major, centrally directed, opinion-molding apparatus in the United States, becomes a reality with the opening by the League of its propaganda center at 445 Park Avenue in New York City.

"According to the current plan, this will be the main coordinating point for nationwide dissemination of pro-Arab, anti-Israel, and anti-Semitic propaganda; and here various activities will originate to rouse public feeling against Zionist and the 'all-pervading Jewish influence' on American opinion.

"To attain these ends, representatives of the Arab Center will seek the aid of the nation's well-known professional anti-Semites, such as GERALD L. K. SMITH, . . ROBERT H. WILLIAMS, [redacted] . . and others.

[redacted] Arab League representative in New York, in a comprehensive report submitted last August to his superiors in the Middle East, outlined the suggestions and offers of assistance he has already received from . . . [redacted] and WILLIAMS. On the question of how and under what circumstances the Arab Center could proceed to work with these people without provoking accusations of anti-Semitism, [redacted] strongly advised 'steady' contact, carried out in secrecy, so as not to hinder or 'deeply impair' the work of the new Center.

"Outlining the cooperation the new Arab office could expect from these men, [redacted] said his conclusions were based upon talks he himself had with them; . . with SMITH . . . some time later. (After last July.)

[redacted] suggested in his report that to rule these men out of the Arab propaganda effort, as recommended by friends in the American Friends of the Middle East, would be unrealistic, because the Arab Center's Mission with regard to Jews is identical with that of the anti-Semites." (Pp. 328-331.)

"Our library has just dropped on this desk the current issue of The Cross and the Flag containing a malicious piece entitled: 'The New Crucifixion in Palestine.' SMITH prefaces his very detailed story with an admission that it is actually based on a memorandum which came to him 'from Jerusalem.' Our files, however, indicate that SMITH's admission is somewhat of an understatement. This is what we mean:

"Some months ago, SMITH met with [redacted] in Washington about the possibility of publishing [redacted] propaganda material in his magazine for a fee. The cost would be on a 'per line' basis as though it were advertising matter. [redacted] agreed; but since the cost was high, $10 a line, he has been careful about the quantity forwarded to SMITH. By [redacted] own admission, there is only one story in the current issue of The Cross and the Flag submitted by him.

"In all of SMITH's distortions about alleged desecration of Christian holy places he finds no room to report the appreciation expressed by leaders of the Christian communities to the government of Israel for having safeguarded their property and for making prompt repairs to damage which occurred during the course of fighting. Such statements are available by the Latin Patriarch in Jerusalem, the Greek Orthodox Patriarchate and the Greek consul general in Jerusalem, the Greek Catholic archbishops of Galilee, the special delegate of the Lutheran World Federation, and many others.

"And of course, SMITH has maintained a very careful silence about the failure of the Arabs to show the same consideration for Jewish religious property in the Old City of Jerusalem. Twenty-seven synagogues were razed to the ground. The historic cemetery on the Mount of Olives where Jews had been laid to rest for generations was sacrilegiously plowed up and the headstones reduced to dust.

"When we first learned of the GERALD SMITH [ ] arrangement, we asked our library to run through recent issues of The Cross and the Flag and mark off the pro-Arab material. Of course we do not know whether the following two items are the result of the SMITH [ ] arrangement, but their substance fascinates us:

"In the August 1954 issue we find the following:

"We (GERALD SMITH) were received by the Ambassador from Egypt and his staff. They are the ones who represent the new government of Egypt in the United Nations. There are Jews in Egypt, but the Jews are not running Egypt. It is the intention of the internationalist clique, directed by Jewish and British politicians, to starve Egypt out by denying her the proper world trade facilities. The trick is to force her to trade with Russia, if possible, so that propaganda can be put out in the U.S. that Egypt is pro-Russian. Then the American people will be taught by the jews to hate Egypt thus exploiting the American antipathy for Communism. . . .Egypt refuses to recognize the Jew-Palestine Government on the grounds that it is an invasion. The Ambassador, whose name is ABDEL HAMEID GHALEB, is a Moslem. . .

"In his June 1953 issue, SMITH'S 'Letter No. 6,' addressed 'Dearest mother,' reads in part as follows:

"One of the most outspoken delegations concerning the world situation is the delegation representing Lebanon, which is one of the Arab states. We interviewed this delegation and confirmed many important and sensational facts which we already knew. Jew-Zionists captured Palestine with the help of England and the United States, driving a million Arabs out of their homes and their places of business to suffer and die in the desert. Many of these people were refined and cultured people living in lovely homes. The Jews not only came in and stole their homes and their farms, but they froze the bank accounts, looted their safety deposit boxes, stole their cattle, swine and orange groves,

"using the prestige and power of the United States and Western governments to support their lootings. . . .

"If SMITH's allegations seem vaguely familiar to you, there is good reason for it. You have read these statements many times before in Arab propaganda, the difference being that for the most part Arab literature uses less blunt language than SMITH. But I suppose SMITH feels impelled to rewrite all his source material; he has earned the right to consider his style inimitable, after all the years he has spent on it."
(Pp. 351-353.)

"January 31, 1955

"Library to Research

"An examination of recent issues of SMITH's The Cross and the Flag against propaganda emanating from the Arab Middle East shows that he has echoed a very large part of it, viz., editorials the 'Israeli Invasion of Palestine' combined with pleas for Arab refugees and charges of church desecration by Jews; articles accusing Israel of peddling opium; stories accusing the Jews of using the United Nations to create war upon the Arabs; items claiming that the Jews want peace with the Kremlin but war with the Arabs; editorials in behalf of the Arabs and endorsing such booklets as The Palestine Refugees, etc., etc.

"Most of these items in SMITH's magazine appeared previously in substantially the same form in Arab literature, radio broadcasts, or official releases. Those that SMITH thought of first appeared later in Arab propaganda." (P. 355)

"February 18, 1955

"Research to AF

"The answer as to why there is such a deadly parallel between the propaganda of official Arab representatives in the United States and local American anti-Semites lies in the close behind-the-scenes cooperation between the two groups. The fact of such cooperation is absolutely documented by such letters as the one [redacted] wrote from New York to a colleague three days ago.

"These Americans can be divided into two categories. The first consist of decent and honest Americans who do not know enough about the Jewish plot in Palestine and who could be well influenced. They are not aggressive but honest. They will not help us in any 'big way,' but their influence on the US public opinion is steady and important. They include Church people, some relief organizations, and others. The second category consists of what the Jews call anti-Semites. I have seen some of them and although I cannot say the same thing of all of them, there are some who can do a lot of things to our cause. I have met people like . . . . GERALD SMITH, a strong anti-Zionist with a tremendous following (who helped us in his publications by some articles we have sent him), . . . . Our contacts with them have been careful to avoid accusations by strong Jewish organizations, like the Anti-Defamation League (which is called here the Gestapo of the Jews).
